President And Pearson Open Talks

Seek To Patch Up Slumping U.S. And Canadian Relations

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—President Kennedy and Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson meet today in an effort to patch up the deteriorating relations between the United States and Canada.

The two leaders plan two days of informal talks at this vacation resort on all outstanding problems between the two countries, including nuclear defense and trade.

President Kennedy was to fly from Washington to Otis Air Force Base, arriving at 11 a.m. Pearson was expected to arrive from Ottawa a few minutes later in a Royal Canadian Air Force plane.

The two leaders were to spend most of today and Saturday reviewing the issues which have built up friction between the two countries during the past six years.

Pearson has had similar talks with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan in London, as part of his announced program of trying to restore Canada's prestige in world affairs.

The meeting between Kennedy and Pearson finds relations between the United States and Canada at the lowest point in years. Former Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker was highly critical of the United States on many questions, and he ran in the recent election campaign on an anti-American platform.

The outstanding issue before Kennedy and Pearson is whether Canada will accept nuclear warheads for the Bomarc-B missiles on launching pads at two Canadian bases. Diefenbaker agreed in 1958 to accept nuclear weapons, but Canada and the United States never reached an agreement as to how the weapons would be controlled.

Pearson has pledged that his government will carry out all nuclear commitments made by Canada, but he has made it clear that he is cool to the idea of having nuclear weapons on Canadian soil.

Pearson made it clear in advance that the discussions would be informal and that details would have to be worked out later. He said his main purpose was to renew a personal friendship with Kennedy and to establish an atmosphere of cooperation between the two governments.

The No. 2 issue on the agenda was trade. Pearson has indicated that he agrees in principle with Kennedy's program to reduce tariffs by 50 per cent. There is much to work out, however, on specific issues, and this will require negotiations by trade experts.

Pope Given Peace Prize In Ceremony

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII today received the $160,000 Balzan Peace Prize and said the honor and glory should go to God. He vowed to continue striving for world peace.

The 81-year-old Pontiff appeared somewhat tired as he walked slowly into the pontifical throne room for the first brief presentation ceremony. But a smile brightened his face.

Reports that the Pope has cancer of the stomach have revived following word that he suffered a brief relapse Tuesday stemming from his serious illness of last November.

The Pope's doctor, Prof. Antonio Gasbarrini, who has denied the cancer report in the past, said: "I can say nothing about it. I am bound by professional secrecy."

Italian President Antonio Segni made the Peace award on behalf of the Swiss-Italian Balzan Foundation, established by the heirs of an anti-Fascist Italian newspaper editor of the 1930s. The award to the Pope was the second, the first having gone last year to the Nobel Foundation.

Major Assault To Overcome Defenses

Senate Unit Says Forces In Cuba 'Quite Powerful'

WASHINGTON (AP)—It would take a major amphibious assault, coordinated with a paratroop attack, to overcome powerful Soviet-stiffened defenses of Cuba.

This is the current assessment by U.S. intelligence authorities, as reported by the Senate Preparedness subcommittee.

The Senate group's report, made public Thursday, said "the combined Soviet and Cuban forces now in the island are quite powerful defensively and could offer severe opposition to any attack."

The investigators criticized the Central Intelligence Agency and military intelligence authorities for what they said were "substantial errors" in evaluating information indicating a serious missile-arms-troop buildup in Cuba last summer and fall.

The subcommittee showed itself not fully convinced that all the Soviet long range missiles and bombers have been pulled out of Cuba. It said intelligence chiefs admit "there is reason for grave concern" that such weapons might be hidden in some of the country's thousands of caves.

But apart from questioning the latest intelligence estimate of 17,500 Soviets in Cuba, the Senate group appeared to accept the professionals' judgments on the state of Cuba's ground, air and sea defenses.

Cuban army strength was listed as about 185,000, the same as before the crisis last fall. Of these, 75,000 are believed regulars and the rest militia and home guard.

The core of Soviet ground power in Cuba was said to comprise about 5,000 men in four mobile, powerfully armored units.

These Soviet army units, if coordinated with Cuban native forces, could put up tough enough opposition "to make it necessary to mount a large seaborne landing effort along with any desired airborne effort in order to be sure of success," the report said.

Another requirement would be adequate air cover, the senators said.

The Senate report indicated the Soviets are retaining control of the heaviest hardware, antiaircraft missiles, coastal defense missiles and probably 42 late model MIG21 jet fighters.

For the first time, it was said flatly that the Soviet navy operates 12 highspeed patrol boats, each armed with a pair of missiles with a range of up to 15 miles.

"These boats are under Soviet control, but Cubans are believed to have been observed aboard them," the investigators said.

Spacecraft Like Woman's Purse

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Astronaut Leroy Gordon Cooper's "Faith 7" spacecraft is like a woman's purse. Reach in and you'll find almost anything.

If Cooper rockets toward his 34-hour space flight as planned next Tuesday, he will carry along such items as an inflatable balloon, four cameras, an exercise device, medical monitoring gear, maps, star charts, medical monitoring devices, geiger counters, a 28-foot expandable radio antenna, shark repellent, a raft, an alarm clock, parachutes and spaghetti and meat sauce.

He'll even carry his own private satellite—a baseball-sized object equipped with flashing beacons which he plans to release into orbit during the third of his intended 22 circuits of the globe.

The longest U.S. manned space flight yet planned is scheduled to start with the roar of an Atlas rocket between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Eastern Standard Time Tuesday. If the mission goes the full distance, Cooper's space chariot will parachute to a landing in the Pacific Ocean 80 miles southeast of Midway Island 34 hours 19 minutes later.

Project Mercury officials primarily will seek medical data during the long-duration mission to determine if a man's ability to perform is impaired by prolonged exposure to space weightlessness.

As Cooper sweeps about the globe, medical sensors attached to his body will relay to ground stations information on heartbeat, blood pressure, temperature, respiration and other parameters.

As a means of preventing deterioration of muscle tone during the long weightless period, Cooper plans to exercise by pulling on a bungee cord—a giant stretchable rubberband-like device attached to the spacecraft floor between his feet.

The Air Force Major, 36, will eat regularly to maintain his strength. The menu includes bite-size tidbits and new dehydrated space foods which, when mixed with water, produces spaghetti, beef and gravy, chicken or lobster.

Cooper will rest periodically, and plans to take a nap for eight hours from the ninth to the 15th orbits. If he oversleeps, a ground station in Australia will send a radio alarm signal to wake him.

The inflatable 30-inch balloon, to be ejected on a 100-foot line during the sixth orbit, is to determine drag effect at the orbital altitude 100 to 170 miles high and to check Cooper's ability to judge distances in space.

The flashing beacon satellite, which will trail the capsule in a slightly different orbit, also will be used in a distance-judging test aimed at developing techniques for space rendezvous.

A television camera aboard Faith 7 may give American home viewers their first look at one of their astronauts in orbit.

Vote Returns Confirmed In Official Tally

Margin Of 2 Upheld In Solicitor's Race Of GOP At Salem

The County Election Board Thursday night completed the official canvass of returns from the primary elections Tuesday, confirming the results shown in the unofficial tabulation made shortly after the polls closed—including an East Liverpool race and two Salem contests decided by narrow margins.

The official canvass confirmed the 2-vote victory of Solicitor Thomas H. Coe of Salem in his bid for renomination on the Republican slate over Atty. Scott McCorkhill. Left unchanged, the count showed:

Coe	502
McCorkhill	500

The final count also confirmed the 15-vote margin by which Lawrence J. Zollinger won the Republican nomination for city auditor over E. Allan McKeever. Gale Laughlin ran third.

It upheld the 13-vote margin of Michael Schuller over Richard Cobourn for the Republican nomination for Fourth Ward councilman at Salem.

The count on the GOP auditor's race showed:

Zollinger	790
McKeever	775
Laughlin	305

In the Salem Council race, the official canvass showed:

Schuller	291
Cobourn	278

In the official canvass, the board also listed write-in votes for the GOP nomination for city solicitor in East Liverpool. The ballot spot was blank, as Republicans had no candidate.

Credited with three votes each were: William S. Foulks, Don Smith, Joseph Cooper, and John McDonald.

Write-in votes also were recorded at Wellsville on the Democratic ticket.

Fred Baldasarre received two. One vote each was credited to John Albaneso, William Bush and Pete Amato. At least 15 per cent of the party's vote was required in any instance to assure a nomination.

The Election Board also listed write-in votes cast for four men for the Republican nomination for Third Ward councilman at Wellsville. Thomas Nelson, William Stoddard and George Grafton received five each and Paul Nelson was given six.

Based on the vote cast by the party in the Third Ward, at least 11 write-in votes would have been required for the nomination, the

Students At 3 Colleges Stage New England Riots

By The Associated Press

A touch of spring fever struck three New England college campuses during Thursday night and sent students swarming into the streets of New Haven, Conn.; Providence, R.I.; and Waltham, Mass.

Before dawn broke today, what began as spring larks turned into full-scale riots at the campuses of Yale and Brown universities.

At New Haven it took scores of nightstick swinging policemen to bring some 1,500 Yale students under control early today. Seventeen students were arrested and one required hospital treatment.

Providence police used dogs, motorcycles and nightsticks to drive the Brown students back to their dormitories after repeated pleas from college officials failed.

One police officer was injured when struck by a rock and another was bitten by his dog. Fourteen students were arrested.

Hundreds of Brown students surged from the campus and headed for girls' dormitories at Pembroke College, Bryant College and Rhode Island School of Design. They milled about the buildings but failed to gain entrance.

Earlier in the week Princeton students rioted on the New Jersey campus. Fourteen were arrested on disorderly conduct charges Monday night. The list of Princeton students who admit being a part of the riot totaled 500.

At Brandeis University in Waltham some 1,500 students swarmed across the campus toward the girls' dormitories but quickly dispersed when six police cruisers showed up. There were no arrests.

School officials described the scene as "spring madness."

A student said, "It was a hot night and we wanted to cool off."

Rain Still Forecast After 'Summer' 80's

The Ohio weatherman still insists the district is due for rain as temperatures climbed again today after summerlike mid-80 readings—hardly more than a week after light snow blanketed the district.

A high of 80 to 85 was forecast with occasional light showers before a cooling trend tonight with a low of 42 to 50. The downtown had 61 this morning and 70 yesterday morning. The afternoon high here yesterday was 84.

Lack of overnight rains in the district brought an extension of a ban on outdoor burning because of extremely dry conditions in fields and woodlands, posing a serious fire hazard.

Area fire wardens were advised Wednesday by the Ohio Forestry Division at New Philadelphia not to issue any permits for burning and that all previously issued permits were revoked.

Goodballet Taken Ill; Heat Exhaustion Cited

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet said today heat exhaustion apparently was responsible for an illness which he suffered late Thursday afternoon at his City Hall office.

Shortly before he was taken ill, the mayor had spent an hour and a half in the sun under temperatures that ranged close to 90 degrees.

When the mayor became ill, a secretary summoned Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi, who called the fire department to administer oxygen. A physician also was summoned. Shortly afterward, the mayor went home.

Uncertainty Hangs Over Settlement In Birmingham Strife

City Claims Any Accord Not Binding

Warning Sounded By Negro Leaders Of More Marches

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Prospects for a final settlement of the Birmingham desegregation campaign were uncertain today despite an optimistic statement by Negro integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

King said Thursday night that an agreement virtually had been worked out except for minor details. A series of statements and counterstatements followed.

City officials immediately said any agreement worked out by a biracial committee was not binding on them. The committee, composed of business and civic leaders, has no official status.

The committee resumes work today. The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, one of the Negro leaders, said a news conference would be held later.

Both King and Abernathy warned that demonstrations would be resumed if no agreement is reached during the day.

For the second straight day, there were no massive demonstrations Thursday. Earlier demonstrations resulted in the arrests of approximately 2,400 and use of fire hoses and police dogs to disperse Negro crowds.

The Negro leaders had called a truce Wednesday while the biracial committee worked for a solution.

King had said at a news conference shortly after noon Thursday that agreement had been reached, he said then, provided for desegregation of lunch counters and other public facilities in the downtown stores, and improvement of job opportunities for Negroes.

The other two points sought were demands that charges against the 2,400 arrested be dropped, and for the formation of an official committee of Negroes and white persons to deal with racial problems.

BIRMINGHAM MOB. Dr. Martin Luther King (center) points to the upper deck of the motel where he is staying as he makes his way through a mob following a news conference Thursday in Birmingham, Ala. King said that a deadline has been set for the last time and that if an agreement isn't reached by today demonstrations will be resumed. (UPI Telephoto)

Senate Would Move Capital If Attacked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—After several years of trying, they have finally managed to get a "Jones-Smith" bill through the Ohio Senate.

While the original idea of getting the two commonest names in the phone book teamed up on a single bill had its origin in jest, the bill which Sens. Charles H. Jones, R-Butler, and John C. Smith, D-Montgomery, finally cosponsored is anything but funny.

The Jones-Smith bill, passed unanimously Thursday by the Senate and sent to the House, authorizes the state capital or the seat of any county to be transferred anywhere in the state in case of enemy attack. The bill is a part of a series of measures growing out of a constitutional amendment adopted in 1961.

Senate action on the Jones-Smith measure came as the legislature wound up its 18th work week and ground ahead toward a mid-June windup of its working sessions.

Since the bill carries an emergency clause, it would be effective as soon as it is passed by the House and signed by the governor.

The House passed a Senate-approved bill to permit Ohio to be the first state in the union to permit "condominium" — individual ownership of individual units in apartment buildings.

Mr. K Wins First Round

Soviet-Red China Peace Talk Set

TOKYO (AP)—Premier Khrushchev has won a preliminary tactical skirmish in his ideological war with Communist China. The first peace talks will be held in Moscow, not in Peking as Communist chieftain Mao Tze-tung had hoped.

Chinese Premier Chou En-lai informed Soviet Ambassador S. V. Chervonenko Thursday that his government accepted Khrushchev's invitation to send a delegation to Moscow to discuss ideological differences splitting the Communist world.

Khrushchev had proposed that Mao head the Chinese delegation, but nobody expected the Chinese boss to agree to that. Chou said the delegation will be headed by Teng Hsiao-ping, top theoretician of the Chinese party, and Peng Chen, mayor of Peking.

Today, as if to dispel any illusion that Peking's "hard line" is weakening, the official Peking People's Daily published a long denunciation of Yugoslavia's new constitution.

Taking a scarcely-concealed slap at Khrushchev, who has accepted the Yugoslav Communists back in the fold as reformed sinners, Peking's mouthpiece said the constitution proves "that they were talking sheer nonsense who consider that the Tito group have shown some repentance and changed their wrong policy."

The Chinese appear trying to win as much support as possible from other Communist parties before the Moscow meeting. President Liu Shao-chi arrived in Hanoi today for his first visit to North Viet Nam, which only recently showed strong signs of siding with Peking.

Last month Liu visited Indonesia, and the big Communist party there seems to be orienting itself toward the Chinese position after initial wavering.

Peking holds that Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence is an unacceptable revision of Marxism-Leninsim, that war with the West still is inevitable and that even a nuclear war would be worthwhile because the Communists would be hurt less than the West.

Design 'Fundamentally Excellent'

New Thresher-Type Subs Planned Despite Disaster

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP) — The disaster that struck the nuclear submarine Thresher one month ago today has not changed the Navy's plans for construction of vessels of the same type.

Rear Adm. Ralph K. James, until April 29 chief of the Navy's Bureau of Ships, told a Navy Court of Inquiry Thursday that the bureau reviewed and found the design "fundamentally excellent and there should be no termination of this program."

The report was accepted by Secretary of the Navy Fred Korth, James said.

The admiral, who retires June 30, also said the Thresher "represented the finest capability in performance and safety in submarines."

After first testifying in open session, James and his successor as chief of the Bureau of Ships, Rear Adm. William A. Brockett, gave further testimony behind closed doors.

It was on a gray morning one month ago that the Thresher sank during a deep sea test dive with the loss of 129 lives 220 miles east of Boston.

Had the disaster struck one cruise before that fatal dive it might have entombed not only crewmen but members of their families as well.

Her last previous venture had been a "petticoat" cruise and dive with the famliy members of her crew just before she was put in drydock for nine months of overhaul.

The $45-million dollar Thresher disappeared on her next diving venture, April 10.

The Navy says Lt. Cmdr. John W. Harvey would never have issued the traditional submarine order of "submerge the boat" if he felt any imminent danger.

The dive was to have been a test of depth after the overhaul.

Hearing Set For Weirton Burglary Trio

Extradition Stayed After Defense Cites Penalties For Court

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard Thursday delayed an order of extradition for a Mahoning County trio wanted at Weirton on charges of burglary and set their hearing for a writ of habeas corpus for Wednesday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

Amil Dinsio, 26, of Poland, and Harold J. Dailey, 32, and Daniel Marshall, 30, both of Austintown, are fighting extradition to West Virginia in connection with the burglary at the home of Gene D. Costalas, 67, of Weirton, operator of Gene's Amusement Co., on March 28.

Defense Atty. Jack Nybell of Youngstown opposed extradition on governors' warrants, citing sections of the Ohio code providing that the court must allow time to test the legality of the arrests ordered by the governor of Ohio at the request of the governor of West Virginia.

Judge Buzzard read the section, showing a penalty of $1,000, or six-month sentence, or both, if they should be turned over to custody of West Virginia authorities "without giving them their legal rights."

He authorized Sheriff Russell VanFossan to arrest Dinsio and Marshall on the warrants and ordered them to post new bonds today. Dailey was not present.

Atty. Nybell explained he had received notice of yesterday's hearing only Wednesday and tried to contact the suspect but found he was visiting in Cambridge. He promised to have Daily in court today or by Monday.

In the official canvass, the board also listed write-in votes for the GOP nomination for city solicitor in East Liverpool. The ballot spot was blank, as Republicans had no candidate.

Credited with three votes each were: William S. Foulks, Don Smith, Joseph Cooper, and John McDonald.

Write-in votes also were recorded at Wellsville on the Democratic ticket.

Fred Baldasarre received two. One vote each was credited to John Albaneso, William Bush and Pete Amato. At least 15 per cent of the party's vote was required in any instance to assure a nomination.

The Election Board also listed write-in votes cast for four men for the Republican nomination for Third Ward councilman at Wellsville. Thomas Nelson, William Stoddard and George Grafton received five each and Paul Nelson was given six.

Based on the vote cast by the party in the Third Ward, at least 11 write-in votes would have been required for the nomination, the

Goodballet Taken Ill; Heat Exhaustion Cited

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet said today heat exhaustion apparently was responsible for an illness which he suffered late Thursday afternoon at his City Hall office.

Shortly before he was taken ill, the mayor had spent an hour and a half in the sun under temperatures that ranged close to 90 degrees.

When the mayor became ill, a secretary summoned Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi, who called the fire department to administer oxygen. A physician also was summoned. Shortly afterward, the mayor went home.

Senate Would Move Capital If Attacked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—After several years of trying, they have finally managed to get a "Jones-Smith" bill through the Ohio Senate.

While the original idea of getting the two commonest names in the phone book teamed up on a single bill had its origin in jest, the bill which Sens. Charles H. Jones, R-Butler, and John C. Smith, D-Montgomery, finally cosponsored is anything but funny.

The Jones-Smith bill, passed unanimously Thursday by the Senate and sent to the House, authorizes the state capital or the seat of any county to be transferred anywhere in the state in case of enemy attack. The bill is a part of a series of measures growing out of a constitutional amendment adopted in 1961.

Senate action on the Jones-Smith measure came as the legislature wound up its 18th work week and ground ahead toward a mid-June windup of its working sessions.

Since the bill carries an emergency clause, it would be effective as soon as it is passed by the House and signed by the governor.

The House passed a Senate-approved bill to permit Ohio to be the first state in the union to permit "condominium" — individual ownership of individual units in apartment buildings.

Uncertainty Hangs Over Settlement In Birmingham Strife

City Claims Any Accord Not Binding

Warning Sounded By Negro Leaders Of More Marches

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Prospects for a final settlement of the Birmingham desegregation campaign were uncertain today despite an optimistic statement by Negro integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

King said Thursday night that an agreement virtually had been worked out except for minor details. A series of statements and counterstatements followed.

City officials immediately said any agreement worked out by a biracial committee was not binding on them. The committee, composed of business and civic leaders, has no official status.

The committee resumes work today. The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, one of the Negro leaders, said a news conference would be held later.

Both King and Abernathy warned that demonstrations would be resumed if no agreement is reached during the day.

For the second straight day, there were no massive demonstrations Thursday. Earlier demonstrations resulted in the arrests of approximately 2,400 and use of fire hoses and police dogs to disperse Negro crowds.

The Negro leaders had called a truce Wednesday while the biracial committee worked for a solution.

King had said at a news conference shortly after noon Thursday that agreement had been reached, he said then, provided for desegregation of lunch counters and other public facilities in the downtown stores, and improvement of job opportunities for Negroes.

The other two points sought were demands that charges against the 2,400 arrested be dropped, and for the formation of an official committee of Negroes and white persons to deal with racial problems.

BIRMINGHAM MOB. Dr. Martin Luther King (center) points to the upper deck of the motel where he is staying as he makes his way through a mob following a news conference Thursday in Birmingham, Ala. King said that a deadline has been set for the last time and that if an agreement isn't reached by today demonstrations will be resumed. (UPI Telephoto)

Mr. K Wins First Round

Soviet-Red China Peace Talk Set

TOKYO (AP)—Premier Khrushchev has won a preliminary tactical skirmish in his ideological war with Communist China. The first peace talks will be held in Moscow, not in Peking as Communist chieftain Mao Tze-tung had hoped.

Chinese Premier Chou En-lai informed Soviet Ambassador S. V. Chervonenko Thursday that his government accepted Khrushchev's invitation to send a delegation to Moscow to discuss ideological differences splitting the Communist world.

Khrushchev had proposed that Mao head the Chinese delegation, but nobody expected the Chinese boss to agree to that. Chou said the delegation will be headed by Teng Hsiao-ping, top theoretician of the Chinese party, and Peng Chen, mayor of Peking.

Today, as if to dispel any illusion that Peking's "hard line" is weakening, the official Peking People's Daily published a long denunciation of Yugoslavia's new constitution.

Taking a scarcely-concealed slap at Khrushchev, who has accepted the Yugoslav Communists back in the fold as reformed sinners, Peking's mouthpiece said the constitution proves "that they were talking sheer nonsense who consider that the Tito group have shown some repentance and changed their wrong policy."

The Chinese appear trying to win as much support as possible from other Communist parties before the Moscow meeting. President Liu Shao-chi arrived in Hanoi today for his first visit to North Viet Nam, which only recently showed strong signs of siding with Peking.

Last month Liu visited Indonesia, and the big Communist party there seems to be orienting itself toward the Chinese position after initial wavering.

Peking holds that Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence is an unacceptable revision of Marxism-Leninsim, that war with the West still is inevitable and that even a nuclear war would be worthwhile because the Communists would be hurt less than the West.

Design 'Fundamentally Excellent'

New Thresher-Type Subs Planned Despite Disaster

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP) — The disaster that struck the nuclear submarine Thresher one month ago today has not changed the Navy's plans for construction of vessels of the same type.

Rear Adm. Ralph K. James, until April 29 chief of the Navy's Bureau of Ships, told a Navy Court of Inquiry Thursday that the bureau reviewed and found the design "fundamentally excellent and there should be no termination of this program."

The report was accepted by Secretary of the Navy Fred Korth, James said.

The admiral, who retires June 30, also said the Thresher "represented the finest capability in performance and safety in submarines."

After first testifying in open session, James and his successor as chief of the Bureau of Ships, Rear Adm. William A. Brockett, gave further testimony behind closed doors.

It was on a gray morning one month ago that the Thresher sank during a deep sea test dive with the loss of 129 lives 220 miles east of Boston.

Had the disaster struck one cruise before that fatal dive it might have entombed not only crewmen but members of their families as well.

Her last previous venture had been a "petticoat" cruise and dive with the famliy members of her crew just before she was put in drydock for nine months of overhaul.

The $45-million dollar Thresher disappeared on her next diving venture, April 10.

The Navy says Lt. Cmdr. John W. Harvey would never have issued the traditional submarine order of "submerge the boat" if he felt any imminent danger.

The dive was to have been a test of depth after the overhaul.

Extradition Stayed After Defense Cites Penalties For Court

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard Thursday delayed an order of extradition for a Mahoning County trio wanted at Weirton on charges of burglary and set their hearing for a writ of habeas corpus for Wednesday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

Amil Dinsio, 26, of Poland, and Harold J. Dailey, 32, and Daniel Marshall, 30, both of Austintown, are fighting extradition to West Virginia in connection with the burglary at the home of Gene D. Costalas, 67, of Weirton, operator of Gene's Amusement Co., on March 28.

Defense Atty. Jack Nybell of Youngstown opposed extradition on governors' warrants, citing sections of the Ohio code providing that the court must allow time to test the legality of the arrests ordered by the governor of Ohio at the request of the governor of West Virginia.

Judge Buzzard read the section, showing a penalty of $1,000, or six-month sentence, or both, if they should be turned over to custody of West Virginia authorities "without giving them their legal rights."

He authorized Sheriff Russell VanFossan to arrest Dinsio and Marshall on the warrants and ordered them to post new bonds today. Dailey was not present.

Atty. Nybell explained he had received notice of yesterday's hearing only Wednesday and tried to contact the suspect but found he was visiting in Cambridge. He promised to have Daily in court today or by Monday.

Board Fails To Hire Aide At Crestview

MIDDLETON — The Fairfield-Waterford School District Board of Education said today the contract of Ralph N. Meyers, Crestview High School principal, has not been renewed.

Board members had no official statement to make regarding the action, which was taken at a special meeting April 25, but which was not announced until Thursday night's regular session.

Meyers has been principal of the Crestview school since it was opened two years ago, and previously was principal at Waterford and Fairfield schools.

The board last night studied bids from five concerns for gas and oil supplies for the district's 12 buses for the next three years.

The low bid for gasoline was submitted by the Corey Oil Co. of Columbiana at 14.9 cents a gallon without tax. The highest was 15.7 cents.

The three lowest bidders for the oil were requested to submit itemized bids for action at the next meeting June 13, because the board desires to award the gas and oil contracts to a single firm and the oil bids were unclear concerning prices for drums of oil.

Discussion was held on corrosion of the natural gas line of the school supplied by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. and the possibility that electric current from another firm's main may be adversely affecting the local pipe.

A representative of Ohio Fuel said a main of the Laurel Pipeline Co. passes close to the local main, and electric current is used in the main of the Laurel firm. School officials will confer with the Laurel firm to determine if the electric current can be diverted from the school mains.

The board authorized extension of service of Joe Danko, band director, for a month during the summer for band rehearsals and individual practice sessions. Pupils will pay for personal lessons.

A total of $264 in Title Three program equipment for science and mathematics was authorized.

A $75 auditory trainer for use by the speech and hearing therapist next term was purchased.

Repairs for the Fairfield and Waterford buildings, including roof work and painting, were discussed.

James Elliott was named executive vice president of the Hancock County Federal Savings & Loan Association at Chester at a meeting of the Board of Directors Thursday night, and Harold Ossman was elevated to the post of secretary-treasurer.

Elliott, 45, of 1027 Phoenix Ave., with the association since 1946, succeeds Harry S. Hobbs of Indiana Ave., who retired this week after 37 years with the firm.

Ossman, son-in-law of the late R. A. Douglass, who was secretary - treasurer for many years, succeeds Elliott in that post.

Elliott, a lifelong resident of Chester, attended the School of Business at the University of Indiana at Bloomington. He is married, has two daughters and a son, and is a member of the Masonic Lodge and Kiwanis Club.

Ossman, 34, of 401 Indiana Ave., a native of Cleveland, is a graduate of Baldwin-Wallace University at Berea, and has been with the firm for six years. He and his wife have two daughters.

Water Board Gets Bids For Pipe, Meters

The Board of Public Utilities, which administers the water department, took under advisement bids it received Thursday noon at City Hall on purchase of a year's supply of pipe and meters, along with chemicals for use at the water treatment plant.

The board received offers from 15 firms on its plans to purchase: 250 tons each of hydrate or pebble lime and aluminum sulfate; 18,000 pounds of liquid chlorine, 5,000 pounds of sodium chlorite, 1,000 feet each of 4-inch, 10-inch and 12-inch pipe, 2,000 feet of 6-inch pipe and 100 water meters.

The only offer on the cast iron pipe was filed by James B. Clow & Sons, Inc., of Chicago, which quoted prices with freight paid to East Liverpool.

It offered 4-inch cast iron pipe at $1.11 and $1.17 per foot, depending on the type of joint. Its other quotations were: 6 - inch, $1.66 and $1.73; 10 - inch, $3.09 and $3.23, and 12-inch, $3.96 and $4.13.

Four concerns submitted bids on meters ranging in size from half-inch to four-inch.

The Rockwell Manufacturing Co. of Pittsburgh submitted the apparent low bid on the ⅝-inch size most commonly used. It quoted a price of $30.80 with connections and $29.40 without connections.

Other bids on the same size meter were: Neptune Meter Co. of Louisville, Ky., $29.72 without connections, $31.06 with connections; Worthington Corp. of Newark, N. J., $29.80 and $31.29, and Hersey-Sparling Meter Co. of Dedham, Mass., $29.78 and $31.16.

The bids on chemicals especially will need computation, because the firms based their prices on varying amounts, with some specifying the charge included delivery and others requiring the city to pay freight.

In addition, some quoted varying prices according to the size of shipments or the type of containers in which the material is packed.

Four concerns filed bids on the liquid chlorine. Jones Chemical Co., Inc., of Barberton offered the material at $7.96 per 100 pounds. The Fred J. Durner Chemical Co. of Pittsburgh bid 12½ cents per pound in less than truckload quantities and 11 cents per pound in truckload lots.

Opalco Laboratory, Inc., of McKeesport offered chlorine at $12.50 per 100 pounds. McKesson-Robbins Co. of Pittsburgh quoted the same price.

Only one concern bid on the activated charcoal. The West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. of New York City filed an offer of $159.34 per ton.

Allied Chemical Corp. of Pittsburgh and American Cyanamid Co. of Chicago bid only on aluminum sulfate. The Pittsburgh firm's price was $2.36 per 100 pounds, while the Chicago company bid $45.50 per net ton.

Jones Chemical Co. bid 69 cents per pound on the sodium chlorite, while McKesson-Robbins filed a price of $72.50 per 100 pounds. McKesson-Robbins also bid $2.33 per 100 pounds on aluminum sulfate.

Jones Chemical Co. offered hydrate lime at $21.38 per ton and pebble lime at $25.55 a ton. Bidding only on hydrate lime, the National Gypsum Co. of Buffalo, N.Y., quoted a price of $21 a ton.

Marble Cliff Quarries Co. of Columbus offered hydrate lime at $20.40 a ton and pebble lime at $20. The Standard Lime & Cement Co. of Baltimore bid $21.40 a ton on hydrate lime and $22.40 a ton on pebble lime.

Jury Refuses Award In Suit For $15,000

LISBON — A verdict for the defendant was returned by a Common Pleas Court Jury late Thursday in the trial of a $15,000 personal injury suit of a Salineville woman against a Salem man as the result of a collision involving three cars on the parking lot of the Salem China Co. Oct. 26, 1959.

Mrs. Sara Fanelli of E. Main St., Salineville, asked the amount from Donald McCoy of Salem, alleging injuries when her car was struck by the car of Thomas Jackson, which had been hit by the McCoy auto.

The three-day trial began Monday before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard but the jurors were dismissed Tuesday for the primary.

Nebo Grange Holds Ritual

LISBON — Annual inspection of Mt. Nebo Grange held Wednesday evening at the Grange Hall with Jack Pozenel, past deputy master, as inspecting officer. The second degree was presented. Twenty-eight attended.

Mrs. Mary Frantz, lecturer, presented a program of "The World of Tomorrow" as her theme. Ernest Tullis, Glen Barthlow and Jerry Boyer gave instrumental music and songs; a poem, "The World of Tomorrow," written by Mrs. Elmer Day, a member, was read by Mrs. Frantz, and a pageant was presented by Mrs. Robert Rockwell, Mrs. A. A. Rudebock, Mrs. Harold Sebrell, Mrs. Carl Bailey and Miss Kathryn Bailey.

The words faith, hope, charity and fidelity were exemplified, along with piano music by S. D Bailey. There was group singing. Ray Davies discussed "Trends In Agriculture."

Mrs. Merle McPherson's team defeated the team of Guy Frantz in a contest.

A decorated surprise cake was presented Mr. and Mrs. Pozenel, of West Point, as outgoing County Grange deputies and another cake was presented Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Morlan, master and secretary of the Mt. Nebo Grange, who succeeded the Pozenels.

Miscellaneous store items were displayed by Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Pickering.

Announcement was made of the Rural Life Sunday observance to be held at Mt. Nebo Grange Hall May 19 and the Dometer Club banquet at 7:30 p. m. June 3 at Calcutta Grange Hall.

The luncheon committee was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Tullis and Mr. and Mrs. Bailey.

Next meeting is May 22 at 8 p.m.

EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW

A Welcome To The Shriners

More than 400 red-fezzed Shriners of Cleveland's Al Koran Temple will stage a full-dress parade here Saturday.

As Potentate Paul Chevallard has said, "We will be justly proud to meet our friends in East Liverpool and surrounding communities and wish to give them an opportunity to meet us as much as we want to meet them, since many of our Shriners reside in the area."

Speaking unofficially for the city of East Liverpool, may we say the feeling is mutual.

The local Oriental Band has provided many enjoyable moments in parades here and elsewhere and it will be equally enjoyable to see other Shrine units in action.

Shrine leaders have found that all work and no play tends to make Jack a dull boy. So they have mixed in the fun with the more serious business of supporting and maintaining 17 crippled children's hospitals throughout the nation.

Residents of East Liverpool and the surrounding area anxiously are waiting Saturday's parade. To the Shriners, we extend a most cordial welcome. It will be nice to have you gentlemen with us.

Names Make News

That time-honored expression of the newspaper profession that "Names make news" has proven true again.

The "names" in this case are those of Mrs. Margaret Hickey and R. M. McFarland.

Mrs. Hickey will retire as East Liverpool relief director and Mr. McFarland as principal of Chester High School.

Each has done an exceptional job in a chosen field. And both can look back with satisfaction on their efforts as they bid a reluctant goodbye to positions to which they have given so much over the years.

On The Eve Of Perspective

During the long countdown this month before Astronaut Leroy Gordon Cooper is launched on a 22-orbit flight around the earth, he will have time to muse on what his fellow astronauts have told him about space. He knows what to expect.

When he is up there on the fringe of terrestrial gravity, scudding through space at more than 15,000 m.p.h. Maj. Cooper will note the same things that impressed themselves on the awareness of his predecessors.

The earth from which he came and to which he will return has been transformed from a level surface—the man's eye view—into a sphere. It is a ball that binds his Mercury capsule into an orbit.

Only the largest topographical characteristics are visible, if anything at all can be seen. From space, earth's visible features are the Asiatic land mass, the American continents, Africa, Australia and the polar ice caps.

A man in space can comprehend the meaningless of the human problems that preoccupy earthlings — their miniscule differences and petty distinctions.

In space, all earthlings become invisible as do all the things they have accomplished with their hands, clawing and scratching and building. They are not even as visible as ants, as seen from 175 miles up—and the earth itself will be no more than an ant hill when space travel is projected millions of miles into infinity.

Astronauts have been picked from all parts of the United States and will continue to be chosen on a hit-and-miss basis. How could it be otherwise for men who learn firsthand that nothing about the earth is important, except its existence—a place where friendship and security exist—not where hatred and animosity imperil friendship and security.

Not The Money, Just The Principle

Only two votes were cast against a resolution in the U.S. House of Representatives to curb junketing expenses.

With 384 affirmative votes, the resolution is expected to draw similarly strong support in the Senate. It's one of those propositions no one would want to oppose anyway. It will let everybody breathe easier.

Representatives and senators can't really be blamed for most of the junketing expenses that have been disclosed. They were spending "counterpart funds."

These funds are available to them under foreign aid agreements. They are the only way the United States can get any direct return on the huge sums it has spent on foreign aid in some instances.

A junketeering representative or senator always can reassure himself when spending this money that it behooves him to get all he can get because America has it coming.

With a little persuasion he can persuade himself he is doing U.S. taxpayers a favor by getting them a nominal return on their investment. Yet when the junkets are held up to examination it never is the counterpart money that's called to attention—only the total sum involved.

Members of the House are tired of being piloried for a practice that always is going to be misunderstood, misinterpreted and maligned.

Isn't there some other way to get some of the money back, though — like offering counterpart funds as rewards for the first 10,000 taxpayers who file income tax returns each year, the same to be used for trips abroad, fully transferable, no questions asked, just go to the nearest U.S. embassy and say, "Sam sent me."

Is Impatience Anti-American?

The earnest plea in Birmingham by all the city's most thoughtful citizens is for maintenance of law and order. Nothing is to be gained if the police lose control. That would be revolution. Birmingham wants no revolution; it wants just the opposite.

But for Negroes in Birmingham and other places where law and order must be maintained at the disadvantage of their race, law and order can become the essence of irony in the struggle for civil rights.

When Negroes ask for civil rights that have been denied them, they are evincing interest in law and order, too. When they are told to be patient and not cause trouble, they are given the impression that impatience has become a form of anti-Americanism. They are lost if they wait, condemned if they refuse to wait.

Throughout the South they have maintained patience until it has been worn thin. Elsewhere, they have been able to see token progress under a credo of "gradualism." But in some parts of the South, "gradualism" has been a way to substitute empty hope for something that might happen in the future for something that could happen next week, next month, or next year.

Yet, when their impatience was asserted, they were charged with disrupting law and order. It is as if impatience had become the offense, instead of the things that caused impatience.

This is one more of the confusing and irritating problems left unsolved by the Civil War. What is a reasonable limit for patience?

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I am tickled by the pulling power of Casey Stengel's losing New York Mets, because it proves is what should need no proof — that people pay to be diverted from their cares, not necessarily to see a winner. The Mets are good diversion, though losers.

Whenever I see Southern policemen manhandling Negroes, lately with the assistance of dogs trained to attack on command, I wonder where they find candidates for these jobs and what the policemen think about their employment. Do they enjoy their work?

It does not seem likely to me that Nelson A. Rockefeller's divorce and remarriage will have any effect on his chance to be president. If it happened, Rocky and Happy would be a fitting addition to Jack and Jackie, Ike and Mamie, Harry and Bess and Franklin and Eleanor, as far as names are concerned.

Don't tell this to the United Nations, but some of us couldn't care less about war between Haiti and the Dominican Republic. If they want to fight, we should stand back and encourage them to get it out of their systems, instead of trying to coax them out of it.

I have no opinion about the talent of Monty Woolley, the actor who died the other day. But I have a strong opinion about his beard, which I admired. It must have been worth its length in pearls as a trademark.

People always talking about "cleaning out city hall" may be interested in an incident in San Francisco, when a city postmen broke into the city hall, turned on the fire hoses and had the place four inches deep in water before they knew what he was up to.

The most disconcerting thing about Adam Clayton Powell, in my opinion, is his urbane refusal to go on the defensive about accusations of wrong-doing. Rep. Powell is decidedly his own man, with no disposition to get into a back seat for anybody on any account.

The fight over legislative apportionment is embarrassing, whether it concerns Congress or a state legislature, because it reveals how many people do not believe in representative democracy either as a principle or as a practice.

I didn't know until I looked it up that "nausea" is pronounced "noshea" instead of "nozzea." Things like this make you wonder how many more words you must be mispronouncing.

The most interesting thing to me about horse racing is that with few exceptions the horses don't want to race; the competition is among the jockeys. Makes me wonder why they can't make horses chase a bag of oats, the way racing dogs chase a rabbit.

Some kinds of work are harder to bear than others, as when a windstorm blows down a tree and the mess must be cleaned up, though the work this entails was not foreseen and cannot be fitted into a springtime schedule.

It's a funny thing. We talk about individualism's importance in America but we have no use for nonconforming individuals. Yet, individualism has no meaning without tolerance of nonconformists.

Education Seen Answer To Race Issue

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Human nature hardly can be repealed by statute. Education and better communication between segments of the community can help to improve relations between groups. Violence and demonstrations that provoke riots can only produce tensions and make worse the relations between racial factions.

David Lawrence

These observations, which take into account the gravity of the race problem in America, have been expressed again and again in the past. Unfortunately, the net result of most of the public demonstrations has been more and more bitterness and a retardation of real progress between peoples of different color.

The Birmingham demonstrations now have been given a certain kind of validity by President Kennedy as not involving violation of any federal statute and as not furnishing any basis for federal intervention.

This is somewhat different from the continued use of federal troops in Mississippi to quell threatened demonstrations long after a federal court order compelling the admission of a student to the University of Mississippi has been obeyed.

The President expresses instead the hope that the State of Alabama will maintain law and order and that the community of Birmingham will find some solution of its own to improve race relations.

This is a tolerant position for Mr. Kennedy to assume toward the people of Alabama. It's strikingly different from the attitude of the national administration toward the people of the State of Mississippi.

MR. KENNEDY, at his news conference on Wednesday, spoke of "federal statutes" not being involved in Birmingham but there was none violated in Mississippi either.

Congress has passed no law requiring integration in the public schools. Yet the 14th Amendment says Congress alone can pass the legislation to enforce the provisions of the amendment. It's questionable whether the Supreme Court was right in ignoring the absence of any federal legislation dealing with desegregation of public schools.

The Birmingham demonstrators were not willing to wait even for court orders to be issued and for a determination to be made in the customary way. Instead, demonstrations were organized in the last few days and thousands of participants paraded without local permits in order to provoke arrests and publicize the disorders.

It's reported that one object was to assist the money-raising campaigns of certain private organizations throughout the country which back integration.

Under the constitutional provisions sanctioning freedom of speech and freedom of assembly, the Supreme Court of the United States has again and again ruled that such privileges are not unlimited.

Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, in a famous decision of the Supreme Court, said it is not freedom of speech to cry "fire!" in a crowded theater. This rule of law limits the right to incite people to violence. The demonstrations in Birmingham were undoubtedly planned with the idea that they would attract nationwide attention because the police would have to stop them. After Birmingham, the ritual will be repeated in other major cities.

It isn't the United States alone that is having race trouble. Human nature is the same in Britain, for instance, as it is in this country.

THE EXHORTATIONS and pious hopes expressed there are the same as in America.

On Tuesday of this week, the London Times published an editorial from which the following is an extract:

"The color problem in Britain is not becoming easier: it is becoming ever more serious. Every so often it bursts out or boils over. This is what is happening now over the Bristol bus boycott.

"Mr. I. R. Patey, general manager of the Bristol Omnibus Company, declares that it is unfair to accuse him of operating a color bar. His company employes West Indians in its garages and depots. But he refuses to change its policy of not employing colored people as bus crews. If he did, he thinks that fewer white people would want the job and it would become difficult to run the services. It is this situation which has led to the boycott by Bristol's colored population of the company's buses.

"Churches and trade unions have been drawn into the dispute, as have the Jamaican and Trinidadian high commissioners.

"This dispute is symptomatic of the ostrich-like bewilderment with which so many people in Britain contemplate the color problem in their midst. In general the West Indians and the rest have come to Britain because there were jobs to be done which would not have been done otherwise. . . .

"THE GOVERNMENT have — reluctantly, it is true — adopted the negative measure of controlling the future entry of these immigrants under the Commonwealth Immigrants Act. But positive measures are more necessary. This means that persistent efforts have to be made in the educational and social fields to fit the immigrants into their new surroundings. In this respect it is noteworthy how different has been the approach in different regions where colored communities exist: how successfully race relations are managed in one place and how they are botched or neglected in others. . . .

"Often the going is hard: but it will certainly be much rougher if prejudices, restrictions, and merely negative social attitudes are allowed to gather strength in this sensitive and all too menacing field."

'They Don't Make Revolutionists Like They Used To.'

Richard Nixon Eyes GOP 'Advisor' Role

By VICTOR RIESEL

Richard Nixon soon will become chairman of the board of a large corporation. His salary will come close to $100,000 a year. The firm deals in pharmaceuticals, cosmetics, toiletries and has been diversifying recently.

Victor Riesel

Some of its offices are in nearby superbs, some in the Midwest and others in Europe — for it has an international division.

That's the word in the "way in" group of the highest Republican circles at New York and Washington. How "soon" is soon? Those who know say it could be in a few months, but certainly before the end of the year.

He will not, of course, relinquish his new association with a big downtown Broad Street law firm.

But the chairmanship of the board of the pharmaceutical corporation will give Dick Nixon exactly what he has wanted ever since his defeat in California. It will give his close friends here exactly what they have wanted for him since the last election.

FIRST IT WILL give him financial independence and enable him to meet the unusually high expenses he must incur to live on a status side of the town, to travel and to select the most advantageous of the many speaking dates and writing assignments he will be offered.

It will keep him noncontroversial and away from the necessity of handling firms which attempt to sell hardware to the government and the Defense Department.

Republican sources of this report recall that important GOP policy makers once sought to give Gen. Douglas MacArthur similar independence. But for many reasons, political and nonpolitical, and the fact that the general became head of a firm dealing with the government, the effort faded away.

Former Republican presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey, who still has great influence in GOP ranks, has neutralized himself on many issues by representing several foreign governments. Nixon is expected to eschew this.

An inside group of Republicans want Dick Nixon to remain free of "such entangling alliances." By associating himself with the pharmaceutical firm Nixon will be able to write, speak and issue statements on foreign policy. He will be able to turn foreign correspondent during his coming European trip.

HIS SUPPORTERS want him to take over the Republican party's "center" and hold it — on national as well as international affairs. They believe he has weight with the liberal wing of the party — as well as with the "non-extreme conservatives."

"Dick Nixon is positively not going out of politics," one of the highest Republican policy makers in the land said to this columnist the other day. "He will attempt to become an independent voice representing the center of the party. He will also be the spokesman for an infuential group of men here in New York. They are vital in the media field, in financial circles, in industrial circles. Thus as he becomes more outspoken, he will become one of the few strong voices of the Republicans."

Add to this his ability to raise political funds among his friends.

Thus Dick Nixon will develop into a powerful figure in Republican ranks, it was said. He can do this right across the board in New York as he could not have done it in California. His new residence is in the Republican stronghold, the 17th Congressional District represented by Rep. John Lindsay — whom many in the GOP want to run for state office. Local Republicans already have contacted Nixon. He has agreed to be active.

He has not the slightest thought now of running for office. At 50 years of age, he can afford to wait for the 1968 election.

IF THE STRATEGY of his friends and himself develops as they plan it, he will be the most powerful noncontender at the '64 GOP nominating convention. If the Republicans win then, he can help build the cabinet as Tom Dewey did for Dwight Eisenhower back in '52. It was then that Dewey named many secretaries, including the head of the Labor Department. What Nixon wants, say some of his friends, is the post of secretary of state.

Much of this was worked out when Nixon was here during the first week in March. It was then that he decided to move East and back into politics without thought of office but with thoughts of becoming the advisor to presidents.

Third Government?

By James McNeish

PALERMO, SICILY

A Mafia leader was asked recently if it were true that there were three governments in Italy: That of Rome, that of Sicily, and that of the Mafia.

"No, no," he replied, "there is only one." And then, after a pause, "Rome and Sicily don't count."

It remains to be seen if the commission set up by the Rome government can prove him wrong.

For the first time since Italy was unified a century ago, the way is now clear for the government to destroy the Sicilian Mafia, the criminal organization which has been called "history's greatest threat to morality."

This powerful force, 150 years old, has since 1945 been responsible—according to official estimates—for more than 1,000 deaths in Western Sicily alone.

THERE HAVE BEEN previous attempts to destroy the Mafia. Mussolini—in a purge which also jailed and tortured hundreds of innocents—put it down during the Fascist regime. But the roots remained. After the war it sprang up stronger than ever.

Recently the Rome government set up a national commission to study the phenomenon and propose ways to exterminate it.

Now that the elections are over, the 30-man commission is set to go into action—in Rome itself, where the Mafia has powerful 'friends' in office; and in Sicily, where assassinations, disappearances and the sabotage of foreign-backed industries continue daily.

During the recent election campaign, Sicilian Christian-Democrat MP's, notorious Mafiosi, were notably silent about the pending investigation.

The inquiry clearly demonstrates that the Mafia is run by a powerful elite in Palermo, the Sicilian capital, that it is politically tied to Rome, and that its annual profits—running into millions of lire—come chiefly from drug-running, the building industry; and government subcontracting.

Until Fascism, the Mafia was a purely feudal organization, a protection and extortion racket, flourishing on exploited peasants, absentee landlords and cooperative priests. It functioned efficiently and silently. If the state couldn't find your stolen cattle (which it couldn't), the Mafia could—provided it was recompensed.

In the last war, Sicilian-American gangsters—reimported to help the Allied invasion of 1943 — went further than their military mission required.

With the willing collaboration of the American Occupation Forces in the West of the island, they took over key posts, helped the old Mafia leaders back to power (some became mayors), and pointed out that big business was far more profitable than cattle-rustling.

BY 1947, when the island acquired a kind of home rule and the Christian Democrats swept into power, the traditional Mafia was back in the saddle. And a new, more dangerous Mafia—urbanized and streamlined— was rising in the cities.

The rustic beret had given way to the lounge suit, the shotgun to the machinegun; and if he wanted to get into office—and stay there—a Christian Democrat candidate was obliged to rely on the protection of his new - style Mafia "friends."

Not even the post-war land reforms — which divided the huge estates, reducing the Mafia's traditional economic dominion—rattled the society. The political figures who rose up to lead the peasants were cut down, systematically, in a series of murders which lasted until 1957. Not once has a killer been brought to justice; suspects have always been released "for insufficiency of proof."

With its members in the regional government, the Mafia can secure sub-contracts easily and thus paralyze industry. Besides building, it controls the television industry, labor, water supply and all branches of marketing.

The weapon called a "Duck's Foot Pistol" came into use in England shortly after 1800. It fired four balls simultaneously from four barrels arranged so as to spread the shots over a wide front. It was also called a Mob Pistol and was used by prison officers, sea captains and others who might be called upon to deal with vicious mobs. If fired point-blank into a crowd, it was almost certain to hit some one.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Newton J. Mosser was named president of the Newell United Dry Forces, a unit of the county and state dry organizations.

Clinton Morley of East Liverpool was granted a permit to operate an interstate truck line between East Liverpool and Chicago.

Josiah T. Herbert of Highland Colony was elected director of activities of the Ohio Union at Ohio State University, where he was a junior.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Platoon Sgt. Frank J. Guidone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Guidone of Lisbon Rd., Wellsville, was awarded a citation for courage in the Solomon Islands.

The first known six-star family service flag in the East Liverpool district was on display at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Graham, Florida Ave., Chester.

City Treasurer Clyde Hall filed his petition with the Columbiana County Election Board for the Republican nomination for a fourth term.

TEN YEARS AGO—Ann Shoub, daughter of Earl Shoub, 406 Broadway, was named valedictorian of the graduating class of 107 at Wellsville High School.

Eddie Oliver, three-sports star who won all-Ohio honors, was presented the seventh Gold Watch award at the annual Policeman's Ball.

The Junior Class of Wellsville High School elected Rita Leatherberry queen for the annual prom at Beacom Memorial gymnasium.

Deaths and Funerals

Man, 83, Dies After Rescue

An 83-year-old West End man, rescued from his home late Thursday afternoon by police and firemen after he was found ill and helpless, died at 7:15 a.m. today at City Hospital.

Samuel Jolly, 928 Denver St., was admitted to the hospital after police and firemen used a ladder to enter a second-floor bedroom window of his locked home.

Police were summoned at 4:15 p.m. by William Reidel of Lisbon St., who telephoned Patrolman Robert B. Pyle, desk officer. Reidel said none of the neighbors had seen Mr. Jolly for two days and they feared he might be ill and helpless.

Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice went to the home, but found all the doors and windows locked. He asked aid of the fire department and Firemen Joseph Yeager and Larry Tullis responded. A ladder was placed against the second-floor bedroom. Yeager saw Mr. Jolly lying on the floor.

Police and firemen entered via the second floor window and summoned an ambulance to remove Mr. Jolly to the hospital.

Mr. Jolly was born in East Liverpool Oct. 31, 1879, to William Jolly and Martha Farmer Jolly and resided all his life in this area. He worked last as a saggermaker at the Metsch Refractories Co. at Chester. He was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church.

His only survivors are nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Martin Funeral Home by Dr. A. K. Davison. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday night and Sunday afternoon and night.

Mrs. Willis Adams

Mrs. Lena A. Adams of Industry R. D. 1, wife of Willis Adams, died Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at Rochester General Hospital, following a brief illness.

She was born in Hamlin, W. Va., and resided in the Midland area 46 years. She was employed at the Crucible Steel Co.'s DPC Plant as a janitress until November 1957. At one time she worked for the former Custer Restaurant and the City Restaurant, both of Midland. She was a former member of the Steelworkers Local 1212.

In addition to her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Agnes A. Pigott of Smiths Ferry and Mrs. Wynona J. Williams of Industry; a son, Blenard A. Atkins of Midland; a brother, Lesla Smith of Smiths Ferry; six sisters, Mrs. Leona Plumley of Midland, Mrs. Una Cumberledge and Mrs. Amagene Coleman, both of East Liverpool, Mrs. Melva Dingess of Newell, Mrs. Mary Jane Heffman in Indiana and Mrs. Nelda Ruth Daniels of Ohioville; a step-mother, Mrs. Stella Smith of East Liverpool, and eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. A son, Donald H. Atkins of East Liverpool, preceded her in death.

Services will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Cannon Funeral Home in Midland by the Rev. Howard McConkey, pastor of the Ohioville Bible Holiness Chapel. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery, Industry.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 5 p.m. today.

Mrs. Jane Moore

Mrs. Jane Koon Moore, 526 Washington Ave., Wellsville, widow of Fred C. Moore, died Thursday at 8:15 p. m. at the Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville, four hours after being admitted. She was 81 and had been in failing health over two years.

She was born Sept. 17, 1881, near Lower Salem in Washington County, to the late Nathaniel Koon and Barbara Ellen Harris Koon. She resided in New Cumberland for some years before moving to Wellsville where she resided for 44 years. She was a member of the Free Methodist Church. Her husband died March 13, 1962.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Carl Geer of Wellsville and Mrs. Sidney Kraft of 18th St. Heights; two sons, Harry N. Moore of Chicago and Charles F. Moore of 18th St. Heights; a sister, Miss Eunice Koon of Washington County, and 20 grandchildren and 42 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. George K. Donaldson. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery, Wellsville.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday afternoon and evening.

Purle E. Sheets

Purle Elijah Sheets, 77, retired employe of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., died this morning at 5:30 at City Hospital, after a year's illness. He resided with a daughter, Mrs. Kenneth (Winifred) Bayley, of S. Shady Ln.

He was born in Belleville, W. Va., Wood County, March 22, 1886, to the late Nelson Sheets and Jane Smith Sheets, and resided here since 1908.

He was a member of the First Church of Christ, East Liverpool Masonic Lodge 681 and was a 32nd Degree Mason in the Steubenville Consistory. His wife, Mrs. Iva Whittington Sheets, died in 1953.

In addition to his daughter he leaves a sister, Mrs. Fred Hall of St. Petersburg, Fla., and a brother, James Samuel Sheets of New Cumberland.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the East Liverpool Arner Home for Funerals by John N. Mostoller. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call Saturday and Sunday at the funeral home where Masonic services will be held Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Ray Bloor

Services for Mrs. Pauline Bloor, 2401 St. Clair St., wife of Ray Bloor, will be held Saturday at 3:30 p.m. at the Dawson Funeral Home.

The Rev. Russell Mase, pastor of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, will officiate and burial will be in Riverview Cemetery. She died Thursday.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Fred Kellogg

SALINEVILLE — Fred Kellogg, 83, of West End, a retired coal miner, died Thursday at 10:05 p. m. at City Hospital, where he had been a patient eight days. He had suffered a stroke.

His brother, the Rev. Theodore Kellogg of Oklahoma, who also died of a stroke Tuesday, was buried Thursday.

He was born here July 8, 1879, to the late David Kellogg and Eleanor Kellogg, and was a lifelong resident. He was a member of the Church of Christ and served as a deacon for 20 years.

His only surivor is his widow, Mrs. Anna Kellogg, at home.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Kerr Funeral Home by Gerald Finnie, minister. Burial will be in Woodland Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday night and Sunday afternoon and night.

Pre-School Clinic Set At New Cumberland

NEW CUMBERLAND — A preschool clinic sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association will be held Tuesday at 1 p. m. in the high school auditorium, Mrs. Maureen Wells, pre-school chairman for the PTA, announced.

Mothers registering children are to bring a copy of the birth certificate and proof of the immunization, Mrs. Wells said.

Mrs. Mary Fluharty, primary supervisor; Mrs. Charlotte Logston, school nurse, and Mrs. Audrey Litman, curriculum co-ordinator, will participate in the program. Refreshments will be served.

Continuance Granted In Trespassing Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Monday at 9 a. m. in the case of Robert L. Coy, 19, of Ashland Pl., arrested Thursday night on a trespassing charge.

The affidavit was filed by Patrolman Howard Frontz, who said he apprehended Coy on the property of the Burchett Auto Sales in Rural Ln. He said the youth was attempting to remove the radiator from an auto.

The judge granted the continuance when the youth asked time to decide whether he wishes to hire an attorney. His bond was set at $100.

Leniency Request Denied

City Club Closed, Given 2 Alternatives To Reopen

The Veterans Social Club was ordered closed Thursday night after an all-day hearing before Judge Joel H. Sharp yesterday in which he gave the organization two alternatives if it expects to reopen.

The hearing in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon was held on the club's request for easing of restrictions imposed by Judge Sharp last August after complaints the Pennsylvania Ave. spot was a nuisance.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw had asked that the club be padlocked but the judge placed the organization on probation and ordered a curfew at the August hearing. The club has a D-4 permit allowing it to remain open until 1 p.m. It has been closing at 10 under terms of the probation.

Testifying for the club at yesterday's hearing were Richard Pack, president, and Robert Waters, secretary, new operators of the club since later in 1962, and who made the request for lifting the present restrictions.

Waters told court that to his knowledge East Liverpool police were called to the club only twice since they took over and he assumes that Robert Trbovich, a neighbor, made the complaint.

Persons testifying against the club were the Rev. Edward Finn of the Grace United Presbyterian Church, who also complained at the former hearing when it was operated by Sam Johnson.

In handing down his ruling, Judge Sharp said "I believe these new operators are trying to run a decent club, but where there is drinking and dancing there will be louder noise."

Their location is in an area where they have about half residential and half commercial buildings and I feel that residents should not be disturbed during their normal sleeping hours.

"I feel that the State Liquor Department was lax in giving a liquor permit to the club in the first place since it is so near the church. The only reason I have heard so far on the club's behalf is that the colored people should have a place of their own where they can go and have a good time, or they will go to other taverns and clubs, which may cause trouble.

"I agree that the club should be allowed to operate but when it's declared a nuisance it has to be abated, as the church and resident homes were there before the club."

In his ruling after hearing testimony, Judge Sharp allowed two alternatives — that the club move to another location where it would not create a nuisance or make the following corrections:

Enlarge the men's toilet to three times its present capacity; then, with the court's permission, it can open up for a 30-day probation period, but still must close at 10 p.m. on Sunday through Thursday and at midnight Friday and Saturday.

If, after their probation period, they have closed on time each night, ceased to be a nuisance in any respect, permit no parking in the alley, keep opposite sexes out of parked cars and allow no shouting or loud music in any manner, the court will then consider their request again.

Club officers did not indicate what steps they will take in efforts to resume business.

Music Fete Held For Salineville's PTA And Guests

SALINEVILLE — About 300 attended a junior band and choir music concert at a meeting of the Parent - Teacher Association Thursday night at the high school.

Oscar Gartrell, assistant director, was in charge of the concert, with Charles Temple, director, leading the fifth and sixth grade choir.

New officers, headed by Martin Adams, were installed by Miss Edna Kirk, third grade teacher.

The PTA authorized the purchase of a new piano for the school, to be paid for in two years.

The next meeting will be in September.

Water Board Gets Bids For Pipe, Meters

The Board of Public Utilities, which administers the water department, took under advisement bids it received Thursday noon at City Hall on purchase of a year's supply of pipe and meters, along with chemicals for use at the water treatment plant.

The board received offers from 15 firms on its plans to purchase: 250 tons each of hydrate or pebble lime and aluminum sulfate; 18,000 pounds of liquid chlorine, 5,000 pounds of sodium chlorite, 1,000 feet each of 4-inch, 10-inch and 12-inch pipe, 2,000 feet of 6-inch pipe and 100 water meters.

The only offer on the cast iron pipe was filed by James B. Clow & Sons, Inc., of Chicago, which quoted prices with freight paid to East Liverpool.

It offered 4-inch cast iron pipe at $1.11 and $1.17 per foot, depending on the type of joint. Its other quotations were: 6 - inch, $1.66 and $1.73; 10 - inch, $3.09 and $3.23, and 12-inch, $3.96 and $4.13.

Four concerns submitted bids on meters ranging in size from half-inch to four-inch.

The Rockwell Manufacturing Co. of Pittsburgh submitted the apparent low bid on the ⅝-inch size most commonly used. It quoted a price of $30.80 with connections and $29.40 without connections.

Other bids on the same size meter were: Neptune Meter Co. of Louisville, Ky., $29.72 without connections, $31.06 with connections; Worthington Corp. of Newark, N. J., $29.80 and $31.29, and Hersey-Sparling Meter Co. of Dedham, Mass., $29.78 and $31.16.

The bids on chemicals especially will need computation, because the firms based their prices on varying amounts, with some specifying the charge included delivery and others requiring the city to pay freight.

In addition, some quoted varying prices according to the size of shipments or the type of containers in which the material is packed.

Four concerns filed bids on the liquid chlorine. Jones Chemical Co., Inc., of Barberton offered the material at $7.90 per 100 pounds. The Fred J. Durner Chemical Co. of Pittsburgh bid 12½ cents per pound in less than truckload quantities and 11 cents per pound in truckload lots.

Opalco Laboratory, Inc., of McKeesport offered chlorine at $12.50 per 100 pounds. McKesson-Robbins Co. of Pittsburgh quoted the same price.

Only one concern bid on the activated charcoal. The West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. of New York City filed an offer of $159.34 per ton.

Allied Chemical Corp. of Pittsburgh and American Cyanamid Co. of Chicago bid only on aluminum sulfate. The Pittsburgh firm's price was $2.36 per 100 pounds, while the Chicago company bid $45.50 per net ton.

Jones Chemical Co. bid 69 cents per pound on the sodium chlorite, while McKesson-Robbins filed a price of $72.50 per 100 pounds. McKesson-Robbins also bid $2.33 per 100 pounds on aluminum sulfate.

Jones Chemical Co. offered hydrate lime at $21.38 per ton and pebble lime at $25.55 a ton. Bidding only on hydrate lime, the National Gypsum Co. of Buffalo, N.Y., quoted a price of $21 a ton.

Marble Cliff Quarries Co. of Columbus offered hydrate lime at $20.40 a ton and pebble lime at $20. The Standard Lime & Cement Co. of Baltimore bid $21.40 a ton on hydrate lime and $22.40 a ton on pebble lime.

Jury Refuses Award In Suit For $15,000

LISBON — A verdict for the defendant was returned by a Common Pleas Court Jury late Thursday in the trial of a $15,000 personal injury suit of a Salineville woman against a Salem man as the result of a collision involving three cars on the parking lot of the Salem China Co. Oct. 26, 1959.

Mrs. Sara Fanelli of E. Main St., Salineville, asked the amount from Donald McCoy of Salem, alleging injuries when her car was struck by the car of Thomas Jackson, which had been hit by the McCoy auto.

The three-day trial began Monday before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard but the jurors were dismissed Tuesday for the primary.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: If you can help with this one the entire office force will be eternally grateful. A certain woman who works with us has a habit of emphasizing her remarks by hitting people in the arm, punching them in the ribs or landing her fist on a shoulder or a back.

These are not love-taps, Ann. They are enough to knock a person off balance. Nobody will go to a movie or a play with her any more because her blows have actually caused black-and-blue marks.

We have tried to break her of the habit by making a joke of it but she just doesn't realize that we are kidding on the square. She goes along her merry way, punching, hitting, shoving and knocking people around.

Please publish this letter. She may see herself and cut it out. Thanks in advance.—BATTERED AND BRUISED.

Dear B and B: Here's the letter but don't count on her "seeing herself." The habit is an unconscious one.

The only way to cure her is to stop kidding and tell her what she is doing. When she lands a blow, belt her right back and say, "Now this is what I mean." After awhile she'll keep her hands to herself.

No Sitter For Sitter

Dear Ann: You've always taken the position that the sitter should not be permitted to have visitors while on the job. My sitter refused to sit unless she could have this privilege — so I agreed. Now I see how right you are.

Last Friday I engaged the girl from 7:30 p.m. until midnight. My husband and I arrived home about 11:30. She and her boy friend were in the den and the hi-fi was going full blast. They were dancing.

Our 3-year-old had gotten out of bed, pulled up a chair to the bathroom medicine cabinet and taken down several bottles of pills. We could not learn whether he had swallowed any pills, so we rushed him to the hospital and had his stomach pumped out.

Fortunately, the child is all right. But had the girl not had a visitor she might have heard the boy moving about upstairs, or checked him periodically to see if he was in bed where he belonged. — NO MORE SITTERS WHO NEED SITTERS TO SIT WITH THEM.

Dear No More: Your experience pointed up another good reason to prohibit guests for sitters.

My central objection is the cozy setup which the sitting job provides. The girl who refuses to sit unless she can entertain her boy friend may well be using the job to do things she can't do in her own home.

Canadian Triangle

Dear Ann: I've always been considered a steady person with common sense — not the type you'd think would end up writing to Ann Landers. But here I am.

I'm a teacher with a good position in northern Ontario. My fiancee is teaching in Niagara Falls. Betty and I exchange letters several times a week but see each other only during long holidays.

In spite of my efforts to keep busy I've become strongly attracted to another young woman. I feel like a rat because I've kept Betty waiting for three years. I'm sure she has been true to me and has passed up other opportunities to date. Betty is a fine girl and I'd rather die than hurt her.

Shall I marry her this summer as planned? I want to do the honorable thing but I'm afraid I'm in love with the girl here.—DUNCE CAP.

-:-

Dear Cap: Do nothing until you see Betty. After renewing the relationship in person, if you still feel the other girl is the one for you, by all means level with your fiancee. There's nothing "honorable" about marrying a girl you don't love.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

River Towns To Join In Steelmark Month

Communities of the Upper Ohio Valley area will observe Steelmark Month during May with a variety of events designed to salute the men and women who make steel.

Chambers of Commerce in Weirton, Steubenville and Wellsburg will direct Steelmark Month activities in their respective communities, with the observance also is scheduled in a number of other area communities, including Follansbee, New Cumberland, Toronto and Mingo Junction.

In addition to saluting employes of the area's two steel producers —Weirton Steel Co. and the Wheeling Steel Corp. — the month-long program is also designed to maintain public awareness of the role the steel industry plays in the economy of the Upper Ohio Valley. To help accomplish this, the Steelmark will be prominently displayed in business places during May.

Goodwill Industries Store Will Be Opened Here June 1

Goodwill Industries of Youngstown, part of a nationwide organization for rehabilitating handicapped persons, will open a store June 1 at 615-617 St. Clair Ave., the former Moninger Brothers Furniture Store.

The organization collects repairable discard items, such as furniture and clothing which are cleaned and repaired at workshops then sold through the store.

The stores, according to Goodwill officials, are designed to provide a community with clean, dependable merchandise at low cost and to provide receipts to meet the payroll of the handicapped.

From collection to distribution, the organization provides work and pay check instead of a relief for the handicapped men and women in Goodwill Industries, officials said.

The rehabilitation centers provide medical services, work evaluation, psychological services, personal and vocational counseling, training, work adjustment and placement.

The contract department also provides the community with "nuisance job" facilities, work that can save the businessman floor space and overhead costs by having them done at Goodwill Industries. Area headquarters are at Youngstown. A store was operated for awhile on Market St.

Schools Register 383 To Enroll Next Fall

Some 383 East Liverpool children were registered in the annual pre-school registration held Wednesday at 11 elementary buildings.

The figure is 11 under the 1962 total but is not a true figure of the number who will begin school in September. Although 394 signed up in the 1962 registration, there presently are 582 enrolled in the first grade, school officials pointed out.

Here's a breakdown of yesterday's registration:

Garfield 24, Glenmoor 40, Horace Mann 36, Klondyke 11, LaCroft 34, Lincoln 46, McKinley 38, Neville 32, Pleasant Heights 22, Taft 27, and Westgate 73.

Wellsville Theater Players Assign Work

Committees have been selected for Wellsville's Liberty Players presentation of "10 Little Indians" June 21-24. They are:

Prompter, Mrs. Martha Wilson; music, lights and sound, James Ross; makeup, Florence Farrar; electrician, George Grafton; stage manager, Harry Rose; properties, Robert Birch; production manager, Glenn Dixon, and publicity, Howard Guildoo and Miss Joyce McLaughlin. Rehearsals will be held every Monday, Tuesday and Friday night at 8 at the theater.

The regular meeting scheduled for May 20 has been reset to Tuesday at the home of Miss McLaughlin, 817 Riverside Dr. Robert Webber, a member of the technical crew of the Pittsburgh Civic Light Opera, will be guest speaker.

Midland Senior Receives Award

Miss Maria Passa, a senior at Midland High School, has been awarded the "Girl of the Year" award by the Midland Junior Women's Club. She was chosen for the award in March.

A commercial student at the high school, Miss Passa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Passa of Penn Ave. She came to Midland from Italy in 1958 with her parents, when she could speak only the Italian language.

She completed her elementary education at the Midland Presentation Parochial School and will graduate from the high school in June. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Busi-C's Knitting Club and the concession squad.

The club will meet May 22 at 6:30 p. m. at the Willows in Industry when new officers will be installed.

Wellsville's Police Chief To Attend Event

Police Chief John Hephner of Wellsville plans to attend a meeting of the Ohio Identification Officers Association today and Saturday at the Leonard Hotel in Mansfield.

Hephner is vice president of the 4th District, which includes Canton, Akron and Cleveland.

Leon Zahrndt of Lisbon is treasurer of the organization. It advances new identification means and works with the FBI in identification work and promotes circulation of new methods between departments.

Hephner will be accompanied by his wife.

Price Of Cigarettes Due Rise In Hancock

Hancock County smokers will be paying more but enjoying it less.

Because of an increase in cigarette manufacturers' prices, the retail cost will be increased, a local spokesman said today.

West Virginians will be affected immediately because of higher cigarette and consumer sales taxes, the spokesman said.

However, vending machine operators said their increase will not be immediate because of the difficulties in converting the machines to the increases.

The prices in retail outlets are expected to be boosted a cent a pack and about 10 cents for a carton.

Deaths and Funerals

Man, 83, Dies After Rescue

An 83-year-old West End man, rescued from his home late Thursday afternoon by police and firemen after he was found ill and helpless, died at 7:15 a.m. today at City Hospital.

Samuel Jolly, 928 Denver St., was admitted to the hospital after police and firemen used a ladder to enter a second-floor bedroom window of his locked home.

Police were summoned at 4:15 p.m. by William Reidel of Lisbon St., who telephoned Patrolman Robert B. Pyle, desk officer. Reidel said none of the neighbors had seen Mr. Jolly for two days and they feared he might be ill and helpless.

Lt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice went to the home, but found all the doors and windows locked. He asked aid of the fire department and Firemen Joseph Yeager and Larry Tullis responded. A ladder was placed against the second-floor bedroom. Yeager saw Mr. Jolly lying on the floor.

Police and firemen entered via the second floor window and summoned an ambulance to remove Mr. Jolly to the hospital.

Mr. Jolly was born in East Liverpool Oct. 31, 1879, to William Jolly and Martha Farmer Jolly and resided all his life in this area. He worked last as a saggermaker at the Metsch Refractories Co. at Chester. He was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church.

His only survivors are nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Martin Funeral Home by Dr. A. K. Davison. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday night and Sunday afternoon and night.

Mrs. Willis Adams

Mrs. Lena A. Adams of Industry R. D. 1, wife of Willis Adams, died Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at Rochester General Hospital, following a brief illness.

She was born in Hamlin, W. Va., and resided in the Midland area 46 years. She was employed at the Crucible Steel Co.'s DPC Plant as a janitress until November 1957. At one time she worked for the former Custer Restaurant and the City Restaurant, both of Midland. She was a former member of the Steelworkers Local 1212.

In addition to her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Agnes A. Pigott of Smiths Ferry and Mrs. Wynona J. Williams of Industry; a son, Blenard A. Atkins of Midland; a brother, Lesla Smith of Smiths Ferry; six sisters, Mrs. Leona Plumley of Midland, Mrs. Una Cumberledge and Mrs. Amagene Coleman, both of East Liverpool, Mrs. Melva Dingess of Newell, Mrs. Mary Jane Heffman in Indiana and Mrs. Nelda Ruth Daniels of Ohioville; a step-mother, Mrs. Stella Smith of East Liverpool, and eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. A son, Donald H. Atkins of East Liverpool, preceded her in death.

Services will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Cannon Funeral Home in Midland by the Rev. Howard McConkey, pastor of the Ohioville Bible Holiness Chapel. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery, Industry.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 5 p.m. today.

Mrs. Jane Moore

Mrs. Jane Koon Moore, 526 Washington Ave., Wellsville, widow of Fred C. Moore, died Thursday at 8:15 p. m. at the Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville, four hours after being admitted. She was 81 and had been in failing health over two years.

She was born Sept. 17, 1881, near Lower Salem in Washington County, to the late Nathaniel Koon and Barbara Ellen Harris Koon. She resided in New Cumberland for some years before moving to Wellsville where she resided for 44 years. She was a member of the Free Methodist Church. Her husband died March 13, 1962.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Carl Geer of Wellsville and Mrs. Sidney Kraft of 18th St. Heights; two sons, Harry N. Moore of Chicago and Charles F. Moore of 18th St. Heights; a sister, Miss Eunice Koon of Washington County, and 20 grandchildren and 42 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. George K. Donaldson. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery, Wellsville.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday afternoon and evening.

Purle E. Sheets

Purle Elijah Sheets, 77, retired employe of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., died this morning at 5:30 at City Hospital, after a year's illness. He resided with a daughter, Mrs. Kenneth (Winifred) Bayley, of S. Shady Ln.

He was born in Belleville, W. Va., Wood County, March 22, 1886, to the late Nelson Sheets and Jane Smith Sheets, and resided here since 1908.

He was a member of the First Church of Christ, East Liverpool Masonic Lodge 681 and was a 32nd Degree Mason in the Steubenville Consistory. His wife, Mrs. Iva Whittington Sheets, died in 1953.

In addition to his daughter he leaves a sister, Mrs. Fred Hall of St. Petersburg, Fla., and a brother, James Samuel Sheets of New Cumberland.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the East Liverpool Arner Home for Funerals by John N. Mostoller. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call Saturday and Sunday at the funeral home where Masonic services will be held Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Ray Bloor

Services for Mrs. Pauline Bloor, 2401 St. Clair St., wife of Ray Bloor, will be held Saturday at 3:30 p.m. at the Dawson Funeral Home.

The Rev. Russell Mase, pastor of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, will officiate and burial will be in Riverview Cemetery. She died Thursday.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Fred Kellogg

SALINEVILLE — Fred Kellogg, 83, of West End, a retired coal miner, died Thursday at 10:05 p. m. at City Hospital, where he had been a patient eight days. He had suffered a stroke.

His brother, the Rev. Theodore Kellogg of Oklahoma, who also died of a stroke Tuesday, was buried Thursday.

He was born here July 8, 1879, to the late David Kellogg and Eleanor Kellogg, and was a lifelong resident. He was a member of the Church of Christ and served as a deacon for 20 years.

His only surivor is his widow, Mrs. Anna Kellogg, at home.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Kerr Funeral Home by Gerald Finnie, minister. Burial will be in Woodland Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday night and Sunday afternoon and night.

Pre-School Clinic Set At New Cumberland

NEW CUMBERLAND — A preschool clinic sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association will be held Tuesday at 1 p. m. in the high school auditorium, Mrs. Maureen Wells, pre-school chairman for the PTA, announced.

Mothers registering children are to bring a copy of the birth certificate and proof of the immunization, Mrs. Wells said.

Mrs. Mary Fluharty, primary supervisor; Mrs. Charlotte Logston, school nurse, and Mrs. Audrey Litman, curriculum co-ordinator, will participate in the program. Refreshments will be served.

Continuance Granted In Trespassing Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Monday at 9 a. m. in the case of Robert L. Coy, 19, of Ashland Pl., arrested Thursday night on a trespassing charge.

The affidavit was filed by Patrolman Howard Frontz, who said he apprehended Coy on the property of the Burchett Auto Sales in Rural Ln. He said the youth was attempting to remove the radiator from an auto.

The judge granted the continuance when the youth asked time to decide whether he wishes to hire an attorney. His bond was set at $100.

Leniency Request Denied

City Club Closed, Given 2 Alternatives To Reopen

The Veterans Social Club was ordered closed Thursday night after an all-day hearing before Judge Joel H. Sharp yesterday in which he gave the organization two alternatives if it expects to reopen.

The hearing in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon was held on the club's request for easing of restrictions imposed by Judge Sharp last August after complaints the Pennsylvania Ave. spot was a nuisance.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw had asked that the club be padlocked but the judge placed the organization on probation and ordered a curfew at the August hearing. The club has a D-4 permit allowing it to remain open until 1 p.m. It has been closing at 10 under terms of the probation.

Testifying for the club at yesterday's hearing were Richard Pack, president, and Robert Waters, secretary, new operators of the club since later in 1962, and who made the request for lifting the present restrictions.

Waters told court that to his knowledge East Liverpool police were called to the club only twice since they took over and he assumes that Robert Trbovich, a neighbor, made the complaint.

Persons testifying against the club were the Rev. Edward Finn of the Grace United Presbyterian Church, who also complained at the former hearing when it was operated by Sam Johnson.

In handing down his ruling, Judge Sharp said "I believe these new operators are trying to run a decent club, but where there is drinking and dancing there will be louder noise."

Their location is in an area where they have about half residential and half commercial buildings and I feel that residents should not be disturbed during their normal sleeping hours.

"I feel that the State Liquor Department was lax in giving a liquor permit to the club in the first place since it is so near the church. The only reason I have heard so far on the club's behalf is that the colored people should have a place of their own where they can go and have a good time, or they will go to other taverns and clubs, which may cause trouble.

"I agree that the club should be allowed to operate but when it's declared a nuisance it has to be abated, as the church and resident homes were there before the club."

In his ruling after hearing testimony, Judge Sharp allowed two alternatives — that the club move to another location where it would not create a nuisance or make the following corrections:

Enlarge the men's toilet to three times its present capacity; then, with the court's permission, it can open up for a 30-day probation period, but still must close at 10 p.m. on Sunday through Thursday and at midnight Friday and Saturday.

If, after their probation period, they have closed on time each night, ceased to be a nuisance in any respect, permit no parking in the alley, keep opposite sexes out of parked cars and allow no shouting or loud music in any manner, the court will then consider their request again.

Club officers did not indicate what steps they will take in efforts to resume business.

Music Fete Held For Salineville's PTA And Guests

SALINEVILLE — About 300 attended a junior band and choir music concert at a meeting of the Parent - Teacher Association Thursday night at the high school.

Oscar Gartrell, assistant director, was in charge of the concert, with Charles Temple, director, leading the fifth and sixth grade choir.

New officers, headed by Martin Adams, were installed by Miss Edna Kirk, third grade teacher.

The PTA authorized the purchase of a new piano for the school, to be paid for in two years.

The next meeting will be in September.

Awards Given By WSCS At Mother-Daughter Fete

Awards featured the mother-daughter dinner sponsored by the WSCS Wednesday night at the First Methodist Church with 210 in attendance. Mrs. H. E. Taylor, mistress of ceremonies, was in charge of the presentations.

Senior mother recipients were Mrs. Will Taylor, Mrs. Charles R. Boyce, Mrs. Naomi Brand, Mrs. Kathryn Thompson, Mrs. L. J. Lewis and Mrs. Ellen Devon.

There were two four-generation groups, Mrs. Margaret McAvoy, Mrs. Mildred Stackhouse, Mrs. Nancy Hornick and Tammy Hornick, and Mrs. Mae Cowan, Mrs. James McCoy, Mrs. John Boyd and Kathy Boyd. Other recepients were mothers with three daughters, Mrs. John Bebout and Mrs. Carl Schneider; the mother traveling the farthest, Mrs. Gladys Handley of Burslem, England, and the youngest mother, Mrs. Nancy Stackhouse Hornick.

Awards included corsages of roses and violets and various plants. Mrs. J. T. Williamson was presented a violet corsage in observance of her birthday anniversary. A plant was sent to Mrs. G. L. Brokaw, a senior mother, who was unable to attend. The program was entitled "Mothers of History," with Margaret Wotring as narrator and Helen Brokaw as co-ordinator. Mrs. R. H. Arnold was vocalist and Mrs. H. Dan Richards, pianist.

Members of the cast were Audrey Johnson, Lettie Plant, Bonnie Martin, Lucille Mayberry, Linda Bates, Louise Burke, Gladys Kinney, Nettie Scheffer, Maude Logan, Faye Miller, Marie Tweed and Janalee Allison.

Invocation was given by Mrs. John L. Clark, wife of the minister, and the welcome by Mrs. A. L. McLain, president.

The tribute to mothers was given by Susan Moore and the challenge to daughters by Mrs. Williamson.

An original song, "Daughters", composed by Mrs. McLain, and another selection "Mothers," were sung under the direction of Mrs. S. R. Bloor with Mrs. H. Dan Richards pianist. The girls Chorale, under the direction of Mrs. Arnold sang, "M-O-T-H-E-R."

The tables were decorated with pink and orchid streamers with large paper butterflies down the center of the table. Arrangements of lilies, tulips and other spring flowers completed the setting. Favors were nutcups filled with candy and topped with paper butterflies of assorted colors.

Mrs. Francis Lang was general chairman and men of the church served the dinner.

Fashion Show Is Feature Of Mother-Daughter Party

A fashion show of styles from 1879-1920 featured the mother-daughter party of the Women's Council of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Wednesday night at the Parish Hall. About 132 attended.

Models were Mrs. Mary Lou Kinsey, Mrs. Donna Curran, Mrs. Ruth Ann Kirschler, Mrs. Moira Horton and Mrs. Gwen Hall. Mrs. Frank Mitcheson, program chairman, was the narrator and Mrs. Pat Manning was pianist.

Another part of the program featured a humorous style show and participants were Mrs. Marilyn Russell, Mrs. Nancy Mays, Mrs. Pat Bickerton, Mrs. Hales, Mrs. Kinsey, Mrs. Dorothy Broadbent, Mrs. Lillian Eccleston, Mrs. Mays, Mrs. Esther Cox, Mrs. Curran, Mrs. Dorothy Glover, Mrs. Kirschler and Mrs. Horton. Members of St. Margaret's Guild were models.

Members joined in group singing.

The toast to mothers was given by Miss Debbie Salisbury and the toast to daughters by Mrs. Ross Salisbury, wife of the rector.

Various awards were presented including oldest mother, Mrs. Rose Simpson; youngest, Mrs. Nancy Mays; youngest child, Diane Kinsey; mother representing the most generations, Mrs. Charles Adamson, and teen-ager whose birthday was the closest to May 8, Jill Finley. Mrs. Clifford Hindley was in charge of the presentation of awards.

The welcome was given by Mrs. James Paisley.

Mrs. Maxine Burch and committee, all members of St. Stephen's Guild, were in charge of the table decorations which featured sprays of lilacs.

Circle 4 served refreshments with Mrs. Richard Bourne and committee in charge.

Circle 1, with Mrs. Ada Dyke and Mrs. Edith Goodwin and committee in charge, comprised the ticket and program committees.

Open House Event To Honor Wellsville Resident Now 80

Sons and daughter of Mrs. Anna Metsch Beresford will hold "open house" for her 80th birthday anniversary Sunday night from 5 to 7 at her home, 1791 Arthur Ave., Wellsville.

Mrs. Beresford, daughter of the late Elizabeth Murrie Metsch and John Metsch, was born May 13, 1883, at West Newton, Pa. She spent her childhood in East Liverpool and, following her marriage to Harry R. Beresford, resided in Richmond, Va., and Baltimore. She moved to Wellsville in 1906. Her husband died in 1945.

She has two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Beighley, an industrial nurse for the U.S. Steel Co. in American Fork, Utah, and Miss Virginia Beresford of Steubenville, an industrial nurse for the Wheeling Steel Co. in Steubenville, and two sons, Harry Beresford of Wintersville, plant protection guard for Wheeling Steel, and Robert J. Beresford of Wellsville, chief deputy sheriff of Columbiana County. She also has six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Beresford, or "Granny" as she is known more familiarly in her neighborhood, is a member of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension and its Women's Auxiliary, a life member of the Wellsville Chapter 417 of the Order of Eastern Star, a charter and life member of White Shrine of Jerusalem 21, a member of Tirzah Rebekah Lodge 370, Queen of Ohio Council 141 of Daughters of America and the American Legion Post 70 Auxiliary.

In 1959 she received a plaque from veterans' organizations of Wellsville at the Memorial Day services for 50 years meritorious work in the Women's Relief Corps.

It's 'Springtime Serenade'

Choirs To Give Concerts Tonight, Saturday

"Springtime Serenade" featuring many tunes from Broadway musicals, will be presented by the East Liverpool High School choirs tonight and Saturday night at 8 in the Westgate auditorium.

Directed by Miss Arletta Helfrich, the Concert Choir, Sophomore Choir, Girls' Glee Club, Madrigals and individual groups and soloists will be featured.

A fine arts exhibit will be displayed in the main corridor at the school with two-dimensional exhibits in pen and ink, scratchboard, water color, pastels, charcoal, wet paper technique and oil sticks.

The program will open with the Concert Choir singing "From This Day On," and "Get Happy." Bill Krieger, baritone soloist, will sing "I've Got Plenty O'Nuttin'."

Selections by the Sophomore Choir will include "Waltzing Matilda," "Praise We Sing" and "Born to be Free," while the Madrigals will present "While We're Young."

Glee Club numbers will include "The Lusty Month of May," "Getting to Know You," "Listen to the Mocking Bird," "It's a Grand Night For Singing," "Some Enchanted Evening" and "I Enjoy Being A Girl."

The first half of the program will end with "The Singalongers" presenting "O Brother Man," "Stouthearted Men" and "Once In Love With Amy" in which Marianne Siddell will be featured in a soft shoe dance. James Lang, bass soloist, will sing "The Vagabond."

The Concert Choir will open the second half with "Song of Praise," "To Music," "Honor and Glory" and "Anthem for Spring."

Selections from "West Side Story" will follow with Lang and Meredith Applegate featured in "America." Other numbers featuring the Concert Choir and dancers will include "Maria", "One Hand", "I Feel Pretty" and "Tonight."

Dancers participating in the selections will be Miss Siddell, Darlene Taylor, Mary Ann Lemire, Becky Luddington, Doris Baumgard, Cheryl Stanley, May Simpson, Vicki Smith, Maxine Skaleski, Jane Cappock, Phyllis Haney and Janet Haught.

Selections from "The Sound of Music" will be highlighted in the final part of the program.

The combined Concert and Sophomore Choirs will sing the title song and "My Favorite Things."

Jane McKeever, Cheryl Tucker and Earla Groubert will sing "Maria" and Carolyn Wilson and Krieger will offer "Sixteen Going on Seventeen."

Gloria Stewart, children and choir will be featured in "Do Re Mi" and "Wedding Music" while Miss Applegate and the children will sing "The Lonely Goatherd."

Krieger will sing "Climb Every Mountain" and Lang will offer "Edelweiss." Miss Stewart and Lang will sing "An Ordinary Couple."

The entire company will be featured in the finale, "Climb Every Mountain."

The children featured in two of the numbers will be Kevin Francis, Karen Schussler, John Rettger, Sharon Knott, Patti Thornberry, Danny Ensinger, Ronnie Brown and Kathy Merriman.

The student producers include Holly Lampman and Linda Lowers with Sue Montgomery as business manager and Kenny Davis as stage manager.

Ohio Voters Gave Tight-Fisted 'No' To Most Levies

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's voters gave a tight-fisted "no" to most of the school operating levies in Tuesday's primary election, a survey of the Ohio Education Association shows.

School bond issues fared just as badly. Voters refused to approve any amount over $1 million. Twenty of 25 bond issues were defeated, while 12 of 37 operating levies were rejected.

Bond issues approved were Beachwood (Cuyahoga County) $375,000; Huron (Eire County) $660,000; Mifflin, $775,000; Reynoldsburg (Franklin County) $500,000; and Farmington (Trumbull County, $7,500.

A law passed by the last legislature played a significant part in the passage of levies in at least five districts, the survey showed. The law reduced the majority of votes needed in primaries from 60 to 55 per cent. Receiving more than 55 per cent but less than 60 per cent were the districts of Lorain, Lisbon, Reily (Butler County), Liberty-Union- Thurston (Fairfield County) and Black River (Medina County).

Shirley Sims, J. D. Cannon Wed In Beaver Ceremony

Miss Shirley Jean Sims, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Sims of Beaver, became the bride of James Donald Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cannon of Calcutta, last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Christian Missionary Alliance Church in Beaver. The Rev. Daniel Andresen officiated.

The altar was banked with cibotium and seven-branch candelabras. The organist was Hilmer Bloom of Beaver.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of silk organza and Alencon lace featuring a round neckline and long sleeves tapering at the wrists.

The pleated skirt highlighted with appliques of Alencon lace ended in a chapel train. Her veil of organza was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a Bible topped with carnations and stephanotis and white satin streamers.

Miss Jolene Sims of Beaver, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was attired in a white silk organza sheath dress with matching overskirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of red and white carnations with white streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Wrye of Indiana, Pa., and Miss Shirley Prince of Ambridge. They wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor and carried bouquets of red carnations with red streamers.

Jay McCullough was best man and ushers were Dennie P. McKenzie and Marvin L. McKenzie, all of East Liverpool.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Big Knob Grange Hall near Rochester with the parents of the bride as host and hostess. The table was centered with a wedding cake, tapers and bouquets of lilacs.

Aides were Sarah Walker, Kathy Sullivan, Claudette Snitger and Karin Engle, all of Beaver, Elaine Reed of Ohio View and Marsha Killian of Youngstown.

The couple is visiting points of interest in Michigan and are expected to return today to Beaver to reside.

The bride is a graduate of Beaver Area High School and is employed by Connecticut General Life Insurance Co. in Pittsburgh. Her husband is a graduate of East Liverpool High School and is employed at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

COUNCILMAN Ray Presutti reported on the first conference held with Crucible Steel Co. officials on the air pollution problem. He said a representtative of the State Smoke Control Commission was present at the meeting Monday night and that he had made arrangements for tests to be made at the open hearth stacks and at various checking stations around the borough, then will present his report. The possibility of the atmosphere causing the smoke to remain close to the ground also is being checked.

Presutti said Crucible officials, after an investigation of the dense dust from the Brown Co. gravel plant, in the Spring Ln. area, ordered the plant operations suspended until it can be eliminated.

Crucible acted through contract agreements which exist between the firms.

THE BROWN CO. manager explained that the lack of adequate water pressure to the facility caused the problem, and that a high-pressure line is to be installed to eliminate the dust. Next meeting with Crucible on the pollution problem will be May 20.

A letter was read from the Midland Chamber of Commerce, commending Council and Crucible Steel "for meeting at regular intervals to discuss the problems and attempt to arrive at conclusions that will abate the nuisance and still maintain the present high levels of employment within the community."

The Chamber also suggested that two of its members be invited to sit in on the conferences with Crucible. It was turned over to the smoke control committee.

THE CHAMBER also asked Mayor Eli Gorak to proclaim the week of May 27 as Cleanup, Fixup Week. The request was filed. The Chamber said that on May 26, it would install artificial flowers in the containers on Midland Ave.

The Chamber had asked that a member of Council attend the meeting May 20 of the new Area Development Committee, and Councilman Joe D'Alesio suggested that all councilmen and the directors of the Chamber meet to discuss points of view on "what is most vital to Midland." A closed meeting was set for May 23 at 8:30 p. m. in the Council Chambers.

Mrs. C. K. O'Hara, borough secretary, said repairs to the typewriter-check signing machine in her office would cost about $500 with used parts or $680 with new parts. The estimates were turned over to the building committee for study.

-:-

COUNCILMAN Steve Germusa moved that the auditor's billing be adjusted to $200 per year, and Presutti moved that a $25-per month adjustment be made in the salary of the recreational director and Council approved.

A request of the Hot Stove League to operate the concession stand at the swimming pool this season was turned over to the swimming pool committee.

Fire Chief Vincent D'Itri said that the Silverman property on Midland Ave. had been condemned and that the new owners, the Elks Club, had agreed to raze the structure.

Officers reports were accepted bills were ordered paid.

Tax Refunds Now Ready At Midland

Midland Tax Collector, Rudolph Presutti, announced that occupational tax refunds are now available.

Persons due refunds may sign at the tax office in the Borough Building Monday through Friday, from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. Checks will then be forwarded to the recipients by mail.

12 Treated At Hospital For Various Injuries

A Hookstown boy hit in the eye by a BB pellet and a Wellsville man hurt on a power mower Thursday are in City Hospital, where 10 other area adults and youngsters were treated Thursday after separate mishaps.

William Mercer, 12, son of Joseph Mercer of Hookstown, is in "good" condition with injuries to the left eye suffered when hit by the pellet. He was admitted at 6:45 p. m.

Russell Winslow, 26, of 410 16th St., Wellsville, is in "fairly good" condition with a severe laceration and possible fracture of the left large toe received when his foot became caught in a power mower at home.

Lewis Galloway, 37, of 802 Dewey Ave. was treated last night for an injury to the forehead suffered when a board slipped while he was unloading a truck.

While washing dishes, Mrs. Jane Cowey, 20, of 554 Indiana Ave., Chester, received a laceration of the right hand on a glass.

Paul Vojnovich, 7, son of Paul Vojnovich of 13 E Midland Heights, suffered a laceration of the right forearm on a glass door.

Charles Wolfe, 8, son of Robert Wolfe of Substation Rd., received a laceration of the left palm in a fall from a bicycle.

While wading in a creek, John Quinn, 7, son of Norman Quinn of 525 Bridge St., suffered a cut on a toe of the left foot from a stone.

Mrs. Sally George, 26, of 909 Washington St., Newell, received bruises of the left ankle when a stone bounced from a power mower.

Kenneth Birch, 64, of Calcutta was treated for a cut of the right hand while he was placing paper in a waste container.

Robert Conroy, 5, son of William Conroy of Park Way, suffered a puncture wound of the right foot when he stepped on a nail while at play.

In a fall from a bicycle, Cynthia Mooney, 9, daughter of Kenneth Mooney of 1310 Oakwood Ave., received bruises and abrasions of the right lower leg.

Phillip Johnson, 13, son of Carl Johnson of Shippingport, suffered abrasions and a laceration of the chin when he fell as his bicycle overturned after the brakes failed.

Phil and Karl Weiser, who are brothers, are mile runners on the University of Washington track team.

Lions Club Plans 5 Street Benches For Chester Use

Ordering of five benches to be placed along Carolina Ave. sidewalks was announced by Jerry D'Angelo at a meeting of the Chester Lions Club Thursday night at the City Park Community Building.

A contribution of $10 was authorized for the Chester High School post-prom party May 29.

Charles Mansfield, president, read a report of the nominating committee, and said further nominations may be made at the next meeting May 23. Election is scheduled June 13.

Mansfield also reported on progress of plans for a home show and fair to be held June 12-15 at the City Park.

Clayton Hobbs announced $200 was netted in the annual broom sale for the sight conservation projects.

Twenty-three attended the meeting. Paul Reed was a guest. A Board of Directors meeting will be held Thursday night at the Community Building.

The term "bootlegging" is derived from the old cowboy practice of carrying objects secretly in the top of a wide-mouthed boot.

Boy, Sister Drown In Pond Near Home

NILES, Ohio (AP)—A brother and a sister went swimming after school Thursday and drowned in a pond near their home.

The bodies of John Strah, 10, and his sister, Mary, 9, were recovered Thursday from the small pond in nearby Mineral Ridge. They were the children of Mr. and Mrs. John Strah of Niles.

Two other Strah children, who were wading in another part of the pond, ran to summon help after they saw their brother and sister disappear.

Accidentally Hanged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Mitchell Smith, 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, accidentally hanged himself on a drapery cord Thursday night in the family's North Side apartment, police reported.

Awards Given By WSCS At Mother-Daughter Fete

Awards featured the mother-daughter dinner sponsored by the WSCS Wednesday night at the First Methodist Church with 210 in attendance. Mrs. H. E. Taylor, mistress of ceremonies, was in charge of the presentations.

Senior mother recipients were Mrs. Will Taylor, Mrs. Charles R. Boyce, Mrs. Naomi Brand, Mrs. Kathryn Thompson, Mrs. L. J. Lewis and Mrs. Ellen Devon.

There were two four-generation groups, Mrs. Margaret McAvoy, Mrs. Mildred Stackhouse, Mrs. Nancy Hornick and Tammy Hornick, and Mrs. Mae Cowan, Mrs. James McCoy, Mrs. John Boyd and Kathy Boyd. Other recepients were mothers with three daughters, Mrs. John Bebout and Mrs. Carl Schneider; the mother traveling the farthest, Mrs. Gladys Handley of Bursiem, England, and the youngest mother, Mrs. Nancy Stackhouse Hornick.

Awards included corsages of roses and violets and various plants. Mrs. J. T. Williamson was presented a violet corsage in observance of her birthday anniversary. A plant was sent to Mrs. G. L. Brokaw, a senior mother, who was unable to attend. The program was entitled "Mothers of History," with Margaret Wotring as narrator and Helen Brokaw as co-ordinator. Mrs. R. H. Arnold was vocalist and Mrs. H. Dan Richards, pianist.

Members of the cast were Audrey Johnson, Lettie Plant, Bonnie Martin, Lucille Mayberry, Linda Bates, Louise Burke, Gladys Kinney, Nettie Scheffer, Maude Logan, Faye Miller, Marie Tweed and Janalee Allison.

Invocation was given by Mrs. John L. Clark, wife of the minister, and the welcome by Mrs. A. L. McLain, president.

The tribute to mothers was given by Susan Moore and the challenge to daughters by Mrs. Williamson.

An original song, "Daughters", composed by Mrs. McLain, and another selection "Mothers," were sung under the direction of Mrs. S. R. Bloor with Mrs. H. Dan Richards pianist. The girls Chorale, under the direction of Mrs. Arnold sang, "M-O-T-H-E-R."

The tables were decorated with pink and orchid streamers with large paper butterflies down the center of the table. Arrangements of lilies, tulips and other spring flowers completed the setting. Favors were nutcups filled with candy and topped with paper butterflies of assorted colors.

Mrs. Francis Lang was general chairman and men of the church served the dinner.

Fashion Show Is Feature Of Mother-Daughter Party

A fashion show of styles from 1879-1920 featured the mother-daughter party of the Women's Council of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Wednesday night at the Parish Hall. About 132 attended.

Models were Mrs. Mary Lou Kinsey, Mrs. Donna Curran, Mrs. Ruth Ann Kirschler, Mrs. Moira Horton and Mrs. Gwen Hall. Mrs. Frank Mitcheson, program chairman, was the narrator and Mrs. Pat Manning was pianist.

Another part of the program featured a humorous style show and participants were Mrs. Marilyn Russell, Mrs. Nancy Mays, Mrs. Pat Bickerton, Mrs. Hales, Mrs. Kinsey, Mrs. Dorothy Broadbent, Mrs. Lillian Eccleston, Mrs. Mays, Mrs. Esther Cox, Mrs. Curran, Mrs. Dorothy Glover, Mrs. Kirschler and Mrs. Horton. Members of St. Margaret's Guild were models.

Members joined in group singing.

The toast to mothers was given by Miss Debbie Salisbury and the toast to daughters by Mrs. Ross Salisbury, wife of the rector.

Various awards were presented including oldest mother, Mrs. Rose Simpson; youngest, Mrs. Nancy Mays; youngest child, Diane Kinsey; mother representing the most generations, Mrs. Charles Adamson, and teen-ager whose birthday was the closest to May 8, Jill Finley. Mrs. Clifford Hindley was in charge of the presentation of awards.

The welcome was given by Mrs. James Paisley.

Mrs. Maxine Burch and committee, all members of St. Stephen's Guild, were in charge of the table decorations which featured sprays of lilacs.

Circle 4 served refreshments with Mrs. Richard Bourne and committee in charge.

Circle 1, with Mrs. Ada Dyke and Mrs. Edith Goodwin and committee in charge, comprised the ticket and program committees.

45 Attend Mother-Daughter Banquet At Clarkson Church

About 45 attended a mother and daughter banquet held at the Clarkson United Presbyterian Church Tuesday night by the Women's Association.

Open House Event To Honor Wellsville Resident Now 80

Sons and daughter of Mrs. Anna Metsch Beresford will hold "open house" for her 80th birthday anniversary Sunday night from 5 to 7 at her home, 1791 Arthur Ave., Wellsville.

Mrs. Beresford, daughter of the late Elizabeth Murrie Metsch and John Metsch, was born May 13, 1883, at West Newton, Pa. She spent her childhood in East Liverpool and, following her marriage to Harry R. Beresford, resided in Richmond, Va., and Baltimore. She moved to Wellsville in 1906. Her husband died in 1945.

She has two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Beighley, an industrial nurse for the U.S. Steel Co. in American Fork, Utah, and Miss Virginia Beresford of Steubenville, an industrial nurse for the Wheeling Steel Co. in Steubenville, and two sons, Harry Beresford of Wintersville, plant protection guard for Wheeling Steel, and Robert J. Beresford of Wellsville, chief deputy sheriff of Columbiana County. She also has six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Beresford, or "Granny" as she is known more familiarly in her neighborhood, is a member of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension and its Women's Auxiliary, a life member of the Wellsville Chapter 417 of the Order of Eastern Star, a charter and life member of White Shrine of Jerusalem 21, a member of Tirzah Rebekah Lodge 370, Queen of Ohio Council 141 of Daughters of America and the American Legion Post 70 Auxiliary.

In 1959 she received a plaque from veterans' organizations of Wellsville at the Memorial Day services for 50 years meritorious work in the Women's Relief Corps.

2 Uninjured In Sideswipe

Two area women escaped injury in a sideswipe mishap in the Substation area Thursday afternoon while a Lisbon motorist and a Canton trucker received minor injuries in two other accidents yesterday.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported cars operated by Marguerite Knight, 37, of Annesley Rd. and Helen J. Higgins, 18, of Negley R. D. 1 sideswiped on Hamilton St., a township road about two miles northeast of the city limits, at 5 p. m.

Minor damage was caused to the westbound 1959 sedan driven by the Annesley Rd. woman and to the eastbound 1963 sedan operated by the Negley area driver, officers said.

John Finch, 16, of 327 N. Market St., Lisbon, suffered bruises and abrasions when his car overturned on Route 154 about two miles east of Lisbon yesterday afternoon.

Officers said Finch, headed west, lost control and the auto went off the right side of the road, then back onto the roadway and overturned. He was treated at Salem City Hospital.

Charles Earley, 40, of Canton was treated at the hospital for abrasions of the back, chest and nose when his truck veered off Route 14 about a half mile west of Unity yesterday morning and rammed a large stone in an embankment.

Earley said the steering on the rig was defective.

6 Injured Slightly As Church Collapses

CINCINNATI (AP) — The roof of old Welsh Congregational Church collapsed Thursday and six workmen fell with it, dropping nearly 30 feet. The six suffered only body bruises and cuts, however, according to police.

The workmen were employes of a wrecking firm tearing down the church to make way for an expressway.

Driver Fined For Speeding

Ronald D. Tice, 807 Lisbon St., Wellsville, pleading guilty to a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd., was fined $10 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Tice was cited at 9:40 p. m. Wednesday by the State Highway Patrol, which reported he passed several cars in comparatively heavy traffic.

Queried by the judge about his speed, Tice replied he was late for work.

"You could have been early for a funeral, too," the judge commented.

Harry L. Woods of State Route 164, near Lisbon, was fined $15 and costs after he pleaded guilty to a charge of failure to halt in the assured clear distance. He was cited by police Monday after a minor traffic mishap on Dresden Ave.

George Neuch, 529 Harrison St., Newell, was fined $5 and costs on a charge of crashing a traffic light at Putnam St. and Harvey Ave. He pleaded guilty.

Neuch was cited at 7:50 a. m. today, police reported.

Ware Local Asks Action

Bumper Strips Proposed In 'Buy American' Appeal

More resolutions proposed for action at the 69th annual convention of the pottery-workers' union in July at Las Vegas were listed today in the union's newspaper, including a suggestion from a West Coast local for national distribution of auto bumper placards urging consumers: "Buy American-Made Dinnerware."

Among 12 new resolutions initiated by local unions, the proposal for the "Buy American" drive was filed by Local 222, comprised of chinaware workers in Pasadena, Calif.

The proposals were published in The Potters Herald, official newspaper of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters.

The local suggested that the international union print the bumper stickers, including the organization's name and seal, and distribute them to its subordinate branches throughout the U. S.

The resolution declares that Congress has "not granted sufficient relief to the pottery industry, which is being destroyed by foreign imports." As a result, it adds, "many of our members are becoming apathetic and discouraged by the lack of results."

Then, proposing the bumper sticker plan, the resolution declares that "our members' cars could become a way to serve our cause."

The IBOP emphasized that all the resolutions are simply proposals that have been filed by the locals for convention action. They have not been cleared by legal counsel or the Executive Board for constitutionality, the IBOP added.

Another resolution filed by Local 222 would require voting by areas in election of international officers. It asserted that "the members who are located in the area being serviced (by the officers) are best qualified to judge whom they would have serving their areas."

Members of locals located east of the Allegheny Mountains and served by the eastern office secretary - treasurer and fourth, fifth and ninth vice presidents, the resolution proposes. Locals served by the west coast office would vote on president, secretary-treasurer and second and 10th vice president.

Locals served by the East Liverpool office would vote on president, secretary - treasurer and the third, sixth, seventh and eighth vice presidents, the resolution provides.

The other resolutions are concerned primarily with payment of death benefits, suspensions and other internal questions.

Boys Await Hearing In Midland Area Fight

A number of Midland and Industry district boys arrested in a gang fight involving 16 will be given a hearing May 22 before Beaver County Juvenile Officer Wilbur Ambrose at Crestview while another was fined on disorderly conduct at an Industry hearing.

Midland, Industry and Ohioview police broke up the rumble Tuesday night on the Mystery Mile Rd. near Industry after Midland authorities were tipped off.

Police said two 17-year-olds argued over a girl and the others "went along to make sure the fight was fair." The boys were released to custody of their parents pending the hearing.

2 Members Accepted By South Side Legion

Walt Reckner Jr. and Vincent Sirtar Jr. were accepted as new members of South Side American Legion Post 952 during a meeting Wednesday night at the post home.

It was announced that the chicken dinner originally scheduled for May 18 has been rescheduled for May 19. Joe Barille is chairman.

The post voted to sponsor a trip to Waterford Park May 10 for three men from the Oakland Veterans Hospital.

Mike Sweeney, services officer of Post 121, Chester, and Richard Shingler, services officer of Post 6450 were guests and discussed service officers' organizations in the tri-state area.

The next meeting will be May 22 at the post home.

Smile. You just passed 14 owners of Ohio Power

Why smile? Smile because they are your friends and neighbors. Smile, again, because the money they invested in Ohio Power has paid dividends to spend for other goods and services in your community.

The American Electric Power System, of which Ohio Power is a part, has over 58,000 shareowners. In addition to these shareowners, there are many more thousands of folks with savings accounts and life insurance policies that represent more dollars invested in Ohio Power.

This is the American way of doing business. It's free enterprise in action—ownership by voluntary investment and not by regulation.

Smile again when you look in a mirror. If you have a savings account, pension plan, life insurance, or pay dues to a union or fraternal organization, you're probably looking at a person whose money is earning money because it's invested in Ohio Power.

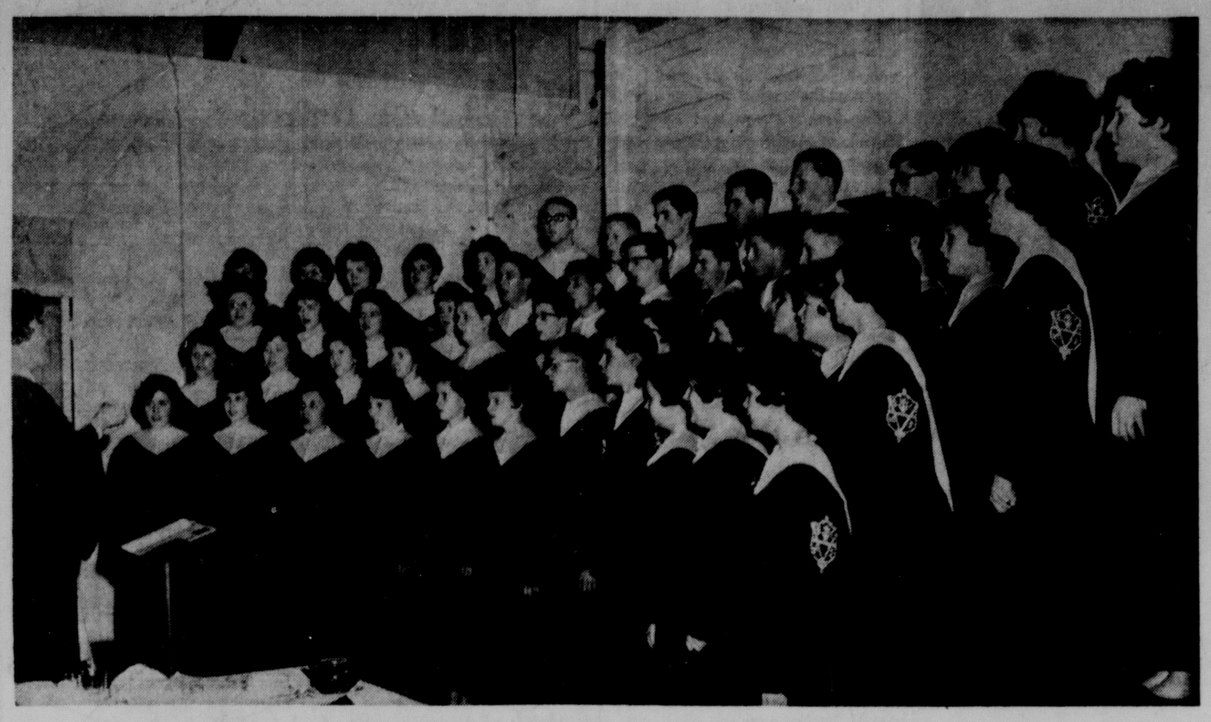
It's 'Springtime Serenade'

Choirs To Give Concerts Tonight, Saturday



"Springtime Serenade" featuring many tunes from Broadway musicals, will be presented by the East Liverpool High School choirs tonight and Saturday night at 8 in the Westgate auditorium.

Directed by Miss Arletta Helfrich, the Concert Choir, Sophomore Choir, Girls' Glee Club, Madrigals and individual groups and soloists will be featured.

A fine arts exhibit will be displayed in the main corridor at the school with two-dimensional exhibits in pen and ink, scratchboard, water color, pastels, charcoal, wet paper technique and oil sticks.

The program will open with the Concert Choir singing "From This Day On," and "Get Happy." Bill Krieger, baritone soloist, will sing "I've Got Plenty O'Nuttin'."

Selections by the Sophomore Choir will include "Waltzing Matilda," "Praise We Sing" and "Born to be Free," while the Madrigals will present "While We're Young."

Glee Club numbers will include "The Lusty Month of May," "Getting to Know You," "Listen to the Mocking Bird," "It's a Grand Night For Singing," "Some Enchanted Evening" and "I Enjoy Being A Girl."

The first half of the program will end with "The Singalongers" presenting "O Brother Man," "Stouthearted Men" and "Once In Love With Amy" in which Marianne Siddell will be featured in a soft shoe dance. James Lang, bass soloist, will sing "The Vagabond."

The Concert Choir will open the second half with "Song of Praise," "To Music," "Honor and Glory" and "Anthem for Spring."

Selections from "West Side Story" will follow with Lang and Meredith Applegate featured in "America." Other numbers featuring the Concert Choir and dancers will include "Maria", "One Hand", "I Feel Pretty" and "Tonight."

Dancers participating in the selections will be Miss Siddell, Darlene Taylor, Mary Ann Lemire, Becky Luddington, Doris Baumgard, Cheryl Stanley, May Simpson, Vicki Smith, Maxine Skaleski, Jane Cappock, Phyllis Haney and Janet Haught.

Selections from "The Sound of Music" will be highlighted in the final part of the program.

The combined Concert and Sophomore Choirs will sing the title song and "My Favorite Things."

Jane McKeever, Cheryl Tucker and Earla Groubert will sing "Maria" and Carolyn Wilson and Krieger will offer "Sixteen Going on Seventeen."

Gloria Stewart, children and choir will be featured in "Do Re Mi" and "Wedding Music" while Miss Applegate and the children will sing "The Lonely Goatherd."

Krieger will sing "Climb Every Mountain" and Lang will offer "Edelweiss." Miss Stewart and Lang will sing "An Ordinary Couple."

The entire company will be featured in the finale, "Climb Every Mountain."

The children featured in two of the numbers will be Kevin Francis, Karen Schussler, John Rettger, Sharon Knott, Patti Thornberry, Danny Ensinger, Ronnie Brown and Kathy Merriman.

The student producers include Holly Lampman and Linda Lowers with Sue Montgomery as business manager and Kenny Davis as stage manager.

Ohio Voters Gave Tight-Fisted 'No' To Most Levies

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's voters gave a tight-fisted "no" to most of the school operating levies in Tuesday's primary election, a survey of the Ohio Education Association shows.

School bond issues fared just as badly. Voters refused to approve any amount over $1 million. Twenty of 25 bond issues were defeated, while 12 of 37 operating levies were rejected.

Bond issues approved were Beachwood (Cuyahoga County) $375,000; Huron (Eire County) $660,000; Mifflin, $775,000; Reynoldsburg (Franklin County) $500-000; and Farmington (Trumbull County, $7,500.

A law passed by the last legislature played a significant part in the passage of levies in at least five districts, the survey showed. The law reduced the majority of votes needed in primaries from 60 to 55 per cent. Receiving more than 55 per cent but less than 60 per cent were the districts of Lorain, Lisbon, Reily (Butler County), Liberty-Union- Thurston (Fairfield County) and Black River (Medina County).

Wheat Farmers Given Reminder

LISBON — Farmers with wheat allotments of less than 15 acres have only a few days left to qualify for voting in the wheat marketing quota referendum, according to Clifford F. Shaw, chairman of the Columbiana County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The deadline is Monday for signing and returning to the ASC office the allotment form for farmers who expect to vote May 21 and obtain program benefits, if the two-price wheat program is approved, Shaw said.

There are 1,900 farms in Columbiana County with small farm allotments and only 400 of these have signed to participate.

There are 100 farms with allotments of 14 acres or more in the county. Persons with a bona-fide interest in these farms are automatically eligible to vote, as in the past.

Small allotment farmers who sign and return their notice of allotment by Monday may vote as they choose, either "yes" or "no" on the issue of marketing quotas for the 1964 crop.

Similar signups will be held in Beaver and Hancock Counties by their ASC committees.

Kirkland Named Head Of Counseling Center

Lee Kirkland, principal of Beaver Local High School, was elected president of the Board of Directors of the Child Counseling Center at a meeting Thursday night in the offices at Mary Patterson Memorial.

He succeeds Judge Louis Tobin.

Others named are: Clayton Aughinbaugh, vice president; Miss Elizabeth Coleman, treasurer, and Arthur Thomas, secretary. The last two were re-elected.

The directors voted to revise the center's hours slightly. The new schedule calls for the offices to be open from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday; 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday.

The center will be closed, as is customary, during July and August. With a full schedule already set up for June, Miss Kathleen Potter, the center's receptionist, was instructed to schedule no further cases until September, except for emergencies that might arise.

The budget for next year's operations was outlined following a report from the budget committee, which was comprised of Miss Coleman, Paul Blair and Kirkland.

A net profit of $649 was announced in a final report on the public card party which was sponsored recently at the Country Club. The proceeds will be used for center activities.

New Officers Elected During BPW Meeting

Mrs. Doris (Pat) McKinnon was elected president at a dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club Wednesday night at the Travelers Hotel. She succeeds Mrs. Helen Moore.

Other officers named include Miss Joan Witt, first vice president; Miss Alberta Abrams, second vice president; Mrs. Lillie Belle Leonard, recording secretary; Miss Grace Woodward, corresponding secretary, and Miss Helen Auld, treasurer.

The officers will be installed at a ceremony June 12 at the hotel.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Dorothy Jones Nelson, who taught two years in Nigeria. She discussed her experiences and showed slides. Mrs. Adelene MacBurney introduced the speaker.

Mary Davis and Sara Kinney of the Future Business Women's Club were guests.

An African theme was used in the table decorations. It featured native huts, pipe cleaner native figures and palm trees. A dish garden arrangement and candelabras completed the table setting.

The world affairs committee was in charge. It includes Miss Abrams, Miss Ruth Burrell, Mrs. Edna Grimm, Mrs. Pat Kapp, Mrs. Leonard, Miss Hazel McShane, Mrs. Kathleen Reed, Mrs. Kathryn Roberts, Mrs. Sara Steinberg, Mrs. Mary Walrath, Miss Frances Jones and Mrs. MacBurney.

6 Homemakers' Groups Will Meet

LISBON—Six Columbiana County Homemaking Demonstration Groups will meet next week for varied programs, Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture, announced.

A project on making marble jewelry will be presented for the Wayne Township group Wednesday from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Boyd. Mrs. Letha Huston of East Palestine will be the leader.

A similar program will be presented for the West Guilford Lake group Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wayne Loschinskey.

A program on "Beauty In Mirrors" will be presented for the Fairfield Friendly Neighbors Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lucille Grubbs of the Columbiana-Middleton Rd.

The Columbiana and Crestview groups will visit the Franklin Furniture Factory Wednesday at 1 p.m.

The East Palestine group will work on gingham aprons Thursday at 1:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bertha Donaldson.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mrs. Anna Gorski, 70, ran into the street near her home Thursday to retrieve a $1 bill blown from her hand and was killed by a truck, police reported. The truck driver was not held.

Observance Due In Memorial For Police Officers

The flag at City Hall will be flown at half staff Wednesday as East Liverpool joins in the national obsrevance of Police Officers' Memorial Day, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet said today.

The mayor issued a proclamation designating the period beginning Sunday as Police Officers' Week.

The mayor's proclamation pointed out the observance is held annually "in honor of federal, state and municipal officers who have been killed or disabled in line of duty."

It also recognizes "the service given by the men and women who stand guard in our midst night and day to protect us through enforcement of our laws," the proclamation added.

In connection with the program next week, Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 29 will sponsor a dance for teen-agers May 17 at the VFW Hall. WOHI will furnish a disc jockey to play records and also will broadcast the program from 8 to 11 p. m. The VFW donated use of its hall.

Midland Accepts Bids On 2 Trucks

Midland Council Thursday night, on the recommendation of R. E. Steebner, borough engineer, accepted the $6,575 bid of the Migliore Ford Sales for a new 1½-ton dump truck, and the $9,223.26 bid of the Midland Auto Sales for a new disposal truck. Both bids include the trade-in of 1956 trucks.

Midland Auto Sales bid $6,653.73 on the dump truck while other bids on the disposal truck were $9,621, $11,000 and $11,300 by Migliore, and $9,340.26, $10,841.26 and $10,590.26 by Midland Auto Sales.

COUNCILMAN Ray Presutti reported on the first conference held with Crucible Steel Co. officials on the air pollution problem. He said a representtative of the State Smoke Control Commission was present at the meeting Monday night and that he had made arrangements for tests to be made at the open hearth stacks and at various checking stations around the borough, then will present his report. The possibility of the atmosphere causing the smoke to remain close to the ground also is being checked.

Presutti said Crucible officials, after an investigation of the dense dust from the Brown Co. gravel plant, in the Spring Ln. area, ordered the plant operations suspended until it can be eliminated.

Crucible acted through contract agreements which exist between the firms.

THE BROWN CO. manager explained that the lack of adequate water pressure to the facility causes the problem, and that a high-pressure line is to be installed to eliminate the dust. Next meeting with Crucible on the pollution problem will be May 20.

A letter was read from the Midland Chamber of Commerce, commending Council and Crucible Steel "for meeting at regular intervals to discuss the problems and attempt to arrive at conclusions that will abate the nuisance and still maintain the present high levels of employment within the community."

The Chamber also suggested that two of its members be invited to sit in on the conferences with Crucible. It was turned over to the smoke control committee.

THE CHAMBER also asked Mayor Eli Gorak to proclaim the week of May 27 as Cleanup, Fixup Week. The request was filed. The Chamber said that on May 26, it would install artificial flowers in the containers on Midland Ave.

The Chamber had asked that a member of Council attend the meeting May 20 of the new Area Development Committee, and Councilman Joe D'Alesio suggested that all councilmen and the directors of the Chamber meet to discuss points of view on "what is most vital to Midland." A closed meeting was set for May 23 at 8:30 p. m. in the Council Chambers.

Mrs. C. K. O'Hara, borough secretary, said repairs to the typewriter-check signing machine in her office would cost about $500 with used parts or $680 with new parts. The estimates were turned over to the building committee for study.

COUNCILMAN Steve Germusa moved that the auditor's billing be adjusted to $200 per year, and Presutti moved that a $25-per month adjustment be made in the salary of the recreational director and Council approved.

A request of the Hot Stove League to operate the concession stand at the swimming pool this season was turned over to the swimming pool committee.

Fire Chief Vincent D'Itri said that the Silverman property on Midland Ave. had been condemned and that the new owners, the Elks Club, had agreed to raze the structure.

Officers reports were accepted bills were ordered paid.

Tax Refunds Now Ready At Midland

Midland Tax Collector, Rudolph Presutti, announced that occupational tax refunds are now available.

Persons due refunds may sign at the tax office in the Borough Building Monday through Friday, from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. Checks will then be forwarded to the recipients by mail.

Lions Club Plans 5 Street Benches For Chester Use

Ordering of five benches to be placed along Carolina Ave. sidewalks was announced by Jerry D'Angelo at a meeting of the Chester Lions Club Thursday night at the City Park Community Building.

A contribution of $10 was authorized for the Chester High School post-prom party May 29.

Charles Mansfield, president, read a report of the nominating committee, and said further nominations may be made at the next meeting May 23. Election is scheduled June 13.

Mansfield also reported on progress of plans for a home show and fair to be held June 12-15 at the City Park.

Clayton Hobbs announced $260 was netted in the annual broom sale for the sight conservation projects.

Twenty-three attended the meeting. Paul Reed was a guest. A Board of Directors meeting will be held Thursday night at the Community Building.

The term "bootlegging" is derived from the old cowboy practice of carrying objects secretly in the top of a wide-mouthed boot.

Boy, Sister Drown In Pond Near Home

NILES, Ohio (AP)—A brother and a sister went swimming after school Thursday and drowned in a pond near their home.

The bodies of John Strah, 10, and his sister, Mary, 9, were recovered Thursday from the small pond in nearby Mineral Ridge. They were the children of Mr. and Mrs. John Strah of Niles.

Two other Strah children, who were wading in another part of the pond, ran to summon help after they saw their brother and sister disappear.

Accidentally Hanged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Mitchell Smith, 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, accidentally hanged himself on a drapery cord Thursday night in the family's North Side apartment, police reported.

12 Treated At Hospital For Various Injuries

A Hookstown boy hit in the eye by a BB pellet and a Wellsville man hurt on a power mower Thursday are in City Hospital, where 10 other area adults and youngsters were treated Thursday after separate mishaps.

William Mercer, 12, son of Joseph Mercer of Hookstown, is in "good" condition with injuries to the left eye suffered when hit by the pellet. He was admitted at 6:45 p. m.

Russell Winslow, 26, of 410 16th St., Wellsville, is in "fairly good" condition with a severe laceration and possible fracture of the left large toe received when his foot became caught in a power mower at home.

Lewis Galloway, 37, of 802 Dewey Ave. was treated last night for an injury to the forehead suffered when a board slipped while he was unloading a truck.

While washing dishes, Mrs. Jane Cowey, 20, of 554 Indiana Ave., Chester, received a laceration of the right hand on a glass.

Paul Vojnovich, 7, son of Paul Vojnovich of 13 E Midland Heights, suffered a laceration of the right forearm on a glass door.

Charles Wolfe, 8, son of Robert Wolfe of Substation Rd., received a laceration of the left palm in a fall from a bicycle.

While wading in a creek, John Quinn, 7, son of Norman Quinn of 525 Bridge St., suffered a cut on a toe of the left foot from a stone.

Mrs. Sally George, 26, of 909 Washington St., Newell, received bruises of the left ankle when a stone bounced from a power mower.

Kenneth Birch, 64, of Calcutta was treated for a cut of the right hand while he was placing paper in a waste container.

Robert Conroy, 5, son of William Conroy of Park Way, suffered a puncture wound of the right foot when he stepped on a nail while at play.

In a fall from a bicycle, Cynthia Mooney, 9, daughter of Kenneth Mooney of 1310 Oakwood Ave., received bruises and abrasions of the right lower leg.

Phillip Johnson, 13, son of Carl Johnson of Shippingport, suffered abrasions and a laceration of the chin when he fell as his bicycle overturned after the brakes failed.

Phil and Karl Weiser, who are brothers, are mile runners on the University of Washington track team.

2 Records May Be Lowered . . .

Several records may fall, Columbiana looms as the favorite and East Liverpool has a runner that could capture distance events.

That's how the picture shapes up for the 60th running of the County Track and Field meet tonight at Salem's Reilly Stadium.

The weather man has cooperated so far and a fast track is promised.

Records could be lowered in two events. Jim Ward, Columbiana's junior star, has a shot at the mark in the 100-yard dash held by George Gaines of 10 seconds flat. Ward already has been clocked in 9.8 this season.

Salem's crack mile relay team has been running very close to the county record of 3.37.3 held by a quartet of Potter runners — Art Peters, Dave Betteridge, Jim Paynter and Bill O'Neil set in 1958

★ ★ ★ ★

FRED COPE, the veteran director of the county meet when it is held at Salem, is usually correct on his predictions and he has picked Columbiana to win the title tonight.

He pointed out the Columbiana, with nearly the same team back again this year, came within four points of defeating Salem in 1962 at East Palestine. The Quakers lost nine regulars from last year's team.

★ ★ ★ ★

EAST LIVERPOOL finished a poor sixth in the 1962 meet, but has a chance to score in the distance events.

Ed Loy, who was ineligible last year, has been lowering his time in the mile and a half-mile events and appears to be the Potters' strongest contender for a first place.

Coach Norm Six points out that Loy hasn't been pressed in any of his dual meet victories and the easy striding Loy turned in his best times earlier this week in a meet with West Allegheny.

He ripped over the mile course in 4:45 and turned in a 2:08 clocking in the half-mile.

Loy will have to do slightly better tonight though if he expects to win, since Salem has a miler in John Tarleton who has toured the distance in 4:33 and two half-milers, Tom Pim and Phil Brantingham, who have been clocked at 2:06.

Johnstone Hurls Against Mets . . .

TERRY JOHNSTONE of East Liverpool, now hurling for the United States Military Academy, received a chance Monday to hurl against a Major League team.

The righthander pitched the middle three innings against the New York Mets, who came into West Point for their annual game with the Cadets and he did quite well against the National League team.

In his three innings, Johnstone only gave up one hit, didn't allow a run and struck out two.

The Mets broke up a scoreless tie in the last inning to gain a 3-0 victory over Army.

Last week, Johnstone was the winning pitcher in relief as Army edged Brown, 5-4.

Local Pitcher Has Shutout . . .

ANOTHER local pitcher — Dave Pennybaker — turned in the first shutout by an Eastern Nazarene College pitcher in three years when he hurled a 6-0 decision over Nasson College of Springfield, Me.

The righthander only gave three hits and collected a single.

Last week, Pennybaker had the distinction of winning and losing a game on the same day.

Against Husson College, Dave started and had pitched 17 innings of scoreless ball until he was touched for four runs in one inning.

In that game, Eastern Nazarene trailed 6-3 going into the final inning but Pennybaker got a key hit in a late rally and scored the winning run to give himself another mound victory.

Later that day, Eastern Nazarene played Nasson College again and Pennybaker was summoned in relief and lost 9-8 on an unearned run. Altogether he pitched 12 innings in one day and came up with a 1-1 record.

Hs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pennybaker, 806 Bank St.

Slow Pitch Meeting Set . . .

SLOW PITCH softball, which was very popular in its first fling here last year, will be organized again this summer.

Bob Hedmond, a supervisor at Thompson Park, has asked that anyone interested in entering a team attend a meeting next Thursday at 6 p. m. at the Thompson Park pool.

Hedmond expects more teams than last year when the park operated a 10-team league.

Robbie's 5-Of-5 Pace Reds; Cubs Sweep Set With Bucs

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Frank Robinson, a notoriously slow starter, went 5-for-5 and drove in seven runs on two homers, two singles and a double Thursday night as Cincinnati erupted for its biggest offensive output of the season and crushed Houston 13-3.

It was easily Robinson's best night and gave every indication that his bat, usually rather quiet in April, is beginning to point toward the ball like a divining rod.

The 27-year-old right-handed swinger now has six homers and 22 runs batted in.

The St. Louis Cardinals bombed the Los Angeles Dodgers for 17 hits, including a grand slam homer by Bill White, in a 10-7 victory.

First-place San Francisco beat Milwaukee 8-2, Chicago's second-place Cubs ran their winning streak to six by beating Pittsburgh 3-1 behind Dick Ellsworth's two-hitter and the New York Mets made it four in a row with a 3-2 decision over Philadelphia.

White hit the first pitch by Dodger reliever Dick Scott for his grand slam as the Cards exploded for seven runs in the fifth inning. Gene Oliver and Charlie James also homered for St. Louis.

Felipe Alou drove in three runs with his seventh homer and two doubles and scored four runs in the Giants' victory at Milwaukee.

The Cubs won their ninth in 10 games as Ellsworth allowed only a second inning single by Donn Clendenon and Dick Schofield's single in the ninth.

Tim Harkness drove in two runs with a bases-loaded single and Johnny Klippstein uncorked a wild pitch that sent the winning run home in a three-run ninth inning uprising that gave the Mets a sweep of the three-game series with the Phillies.

Steeler Defensive Star Claimed

'Big Daddy' Lipscomb Dies

BALTIMORE (AP)—Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb, a giant among giants of professional football, died today under mysterious circumstances in a West Baltimore house.

A defensive tackle with three National Football League teams for 10 seasons, the 31-year-old Negro was pronounced dead at Lutheran Hospital shortly before 8 a.m.

Former teammates, including one with whom he had been living for four years in Baltimore, identified the body. It was sent to the morgue to determine the cause of death which was listed by the hospital as unknown.

Police quoted Timothy Black, 25, as telling them he had been with Lipscomb in the house and "there had been drinking going on."

Police added they also were investigating whether narcotics was involved.

Black told police he left the house for a time and when he returned he found Lipscomb slumped over a kitchen table on the second floor.

The accident room at Lutheran Hospital, which made the identification of the famous football player, said cause of death was not known.

The body was sent to the city morgue for an autopsy. An ambulance was called to a house in the western part of the city this morning and Lipscomb's body was found on the kitchen floor.

Lipscomb, who was traded to the Steelers by the Baltimore Colts on the first day of practice two seasons ago, was taken to the hospital at 7:17 a.m.

Lipscomb was one of the stars of the professional game. He weighed 288 pounds and stood 6-foot-6. He was 31 and had played 10 years in the National Football League. He came to professional football without the benefit of college experience.

Lipscomb reached the peak of his career in 1958 and 1959 when he made the All-Pro team.

Lipscomb and his wife, Cecilia, were divorced in 1960. They had two children.

In Pittsburgh, Steelers Coach Buddy Parker was shocked when he learned the news.

"I just heard it on the radio," Parker told The Associated Press as his voice cracked. "I can't believe it. It was out of the clear blue."

Parker called Lipscomb "one of the best tackles the league ever had."

Floyd Says Fight Is Set For July 22

NEW YORK (AP) — Neither Floyd Patterson's injured finger nor his projected trip to strife-torn Birmingham, Ala., will cause any further delay in his rematch with heavyweight champion Sonny Liston, Patterson insists.

Patterson was knocked out in the first round of his first fight with Liston. Their oft-postponed rematch now is scheduled for Las Vegas July 22.

"The fight definitely will go on July 22," the former champion said Thursday. "Even if my hand hasn't healed, it will go on. There will be no more delay on my part."

Nor, said Patterson, would his trip to racially-troubled Birmingham delay the bout, though he added:

"I expect to be arrested. I expect to be handled roughly and put in jail. If they do put me in jail, I imagine there will be somebody to put up bail."

Patterson and baseball Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson said they were going to Birmingham next Monday.

8-Team Tri-County Loop To Open Season Sunday

All eight teams are scheduled to play Sunday when the Tri-County Baseball League launches its 1963 season.

Opening games show Jewett at Wellsville with Bergholz playing at Salineville, Irondale will host Beloit and Carrollton visits Kilgore.

A 35-game schedule will be played and games are scheduled on Wednesdays and Sundays.

An all-star game is scheduled under the lights at Carrollton on July 7. A round robin tournament will be held at the completion of the season.

The Wellsville roster this season will have new talent in John Martin, Butch Cunningham, Jim Howell, Jerry Cannon, Curtis Shanks, Don Welch, Franklin Jackson and Bob Campbell.

Grant Fails To Top Nats In 6-0 Loss

By The Associated Press

Ray Herbert was just another good journeyman pitcher before he made his way to Chicago. But there, under manager Al Lopez, he found the magic touch.

Herbert hadn't caused many sensations in eight seasons at Detroit and Kansas City, although he won almost as many as he lost. One season he even won more than he lost

Then came the trade to Chicago. Last year, his first full season with the White Sox, he had a 20-9 record and led the league in won-lost percentage.

This season his start is even better. He's 4-1 and all the victories have been shutouts, the last three in a row. The last was a two-hit, 2-0 blanking of the New York Yankees Thursday night that protected the White Sox' one-game lead atop the standings and dropped the Yankees to fifth.

Baltimore climbed into a share of second with a 4-1 triumph over Boston while Washington finally got around to beating Mudcat Grant, whipping the Cleveland Indians 6-0 behind Dave Stenhouse, in the only other games scheduled.

Herbert, 33, a right-hander, allowed the stumbling Yankees only three base runers in extending his scoreless inning string to 27.

Grant had won 12 straight in Washington before the Senators finally got to him. He left in the fourth after Ed Brinkman unloaded a three-run homer. Stenhouse spaced seven hits in gaining his first shutout of the season.

Chuck Estrada and Stu Miller combined for a three-hitter in the Orioles' victory over Boston.

Potters Held To 3 Hits In 7-1 Setback

The East Liverpool Potters were limited to three hits in bowing 5-1 to Carrollton Thursday afternoon at Patterson Field.

Carrollton's Harper allowed the Potters three singles as the visitors broke a 1-1 tie in the first inning by scoring a single run in the third, two in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Ron Burns the starting pitcher was checked with the loss as three Potter hurlers gave up six hits.

The Potters scored their lone run in the first inning on an error, a single by Tom Kraft and ground out.

Officers Re-Elected In Women's Bowling

All officers have been re-elected in the East Liverpool Women's Bowling Association.

Mary Lou Springer is president, Sara Hague, vice president; Jeris Wilson, secretary; June McVay, treasurer and Jennie Hoffman, sergeant-at-arms.

The next meeting will be held in August for the distribution of winter league supplies.

Mets Option Throneberry After Winning 4 In Row

NEW YORK (AP)—This, then, is the end of an era. Marvelous Marv is gone.

And a lot of the clown has gone out of the New York Mets.

Marv Throneberry, whose play around first base made him the living symbol of the hapless Mets last season, has been optioned to Buffalo of the International League.

Perhaps by coincidence, the Mets suddenly are acting most un-Met-like. They've won four in a row, the last two with ninth inning rallies. Their pitching has been good, at times spectacular. They're getting just enough hitting. Their fielding is above reproach and they haven't pulled a rock in a week.

Which isn't at all like the Mets of a year ago who, as personified by the luckless Throneberry, lost a record 120 games.

"Things just seem to happen to me," Throneberry once remarked of his play. And indeed they did. Usually they were bad things. Or at least comical.

Not that Marv planned it that way. It just happened. And, in one year, he became a legend in his own time.

That, however, didn't prevent him from losing the regular first base job to Tim Harkness and rookie Ed Kranepool. So Marvelous Marv was shuffled off to Buffalo Thursday in the Mets' cutdown to a roster of 25.

Regular membership in the United States Golf Association cost $50 a year for clubs with 18 holes or more.

Fire Ban To Be Reinstated

A ban on outside burning in the city will be reinstated Saturday, Fire Chief Charles Bryan said today. The ban was lifted two weeks ago to permit residents to burn brush and papers. However, Bryan pointed out residents should heed the burning ban imposed Thursday throughout the county because of winds and a lack of rain.

City Will Receive Flag Saturday

An American flag which flew over the U.S. Capitol Building at Washington will be presented to East Liverpool by visiting Shriners during their parade here Saturday.

More than 400 members of Al Koran Temple at Cleveland in 17 marching units will parade through the downtown area, after having visited Salem and East Palestine earlier in the afternoon.

Paul A. Chevallard, potentate, is scheduled to present the flag to city officials during a halt in front of the City Hall as a token of appreciation for permitting the parade, local Shrine officials announced today.

The Cleveland and East Liverpool Oriental bands, a Cleveland kiltie band, a drum and bugle band from Massillon, clowns from Youngstown and other units will be in the parade, which will form near Memorial Auditorium at 4:30.

An "oasis" will be held at the former American Paper Products Co. building after the parade and a dinner for the Shriners will begin at 6:30 at Beaver Local Public School.

In connection with the program, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet issued a proclamation designating Saturday as "Shriners Day" in East Liverpool. The mayor will accept the flag in a City Hall ceremony.

West Point Club Chooses Officers

WEST POINT — Mrs. Archie Hearn was elected president of the West Point Mothers' Club Wednesday afternoon at the school. She succeeds Mrs. William Reynolds.

Others elected were Mrs. Annabelle White, vice president; Mrs. Margaret Witla, secretary; Mrs. William Conrad, treasurer, and Mrs. Robert Brown, reporter.

The officers will begin duties at the meeting in September.

In other business the group planned for the school picnic May 29, the last day of school. Twenty members attended.

Old Pumper In Use Pending Truck Repair

Scheduled to be replaced within a couple of months, a 33-year-old Seagraves pumper is filling in at the East End station today until repairs can be completed to the American LaFrance pumper.

The 23-year-old East End truck was disabled Wednesday when a connecting rod broke while the truck was responding to a grass fire. The truck will be deadlined until the crankshaft can be machined and parts secured from New York.

The city now is awaiting delivery on a new pumper to replace the 1933 Seagraves model.

The lights formerly used for baseball at Ebbetts Field are to be used by the New York Soccer Club at Randalls Island Stadium this year.

Trash Pickup Due To Shift Into East End

Winding up its first week, the annual citywide spring cleanup campaign is scheduled to shift into East End Monday morning.

The two-week drive will continue through Friday, with incinerator department trucks following their usual trash schedules. It began Monday in the North Side-Maplewood-Beechwood area.

The first two days of next week, the drive will concentrate in East End. Monday's schedule will cover:

Ohio Ave., St. George St., Railroad St., Kent St., State St., Mulberry St., 1st Ave., Virginia Ave., Mapletree St., Elmtree St., Pennsylvania Ave., Boyce St., Monaca St., Harker Ave. and Erie St.

Tuesday's route will include: Globe St., Etruria St., Cleveland Ave., Palissey St., Wedgewood St., Valley Ave., Putnam St., Harholliday St., Park Ave., Alpha St., Oakland Ave., Price St., vey Ave., Ohio Ave., Michigan Ave. and Little England.

The traditional drive is held annually in May, with incinerator department trucks hauling away the winter's accumulation of refuse which householders have cleaned from their cellars, attics and garages.

The campaign also is timed to coincide with spring lawn and garden work so that the city crews can haul away hedge clippings, limbs and other debris.

Supt. John Melvin pointed out that trash should be placed at the curb or the property line the night before a scheduled pickup, as trucks being their rounds at 7 a.m.

Wetzel Cites Proposal For Memorial Land

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rep. Clarence Wetzel, R - Columbiana, said Thursday a House Mines and Natural Resources Subcommittee will look into a proposal for state purchase of Rock Mill near Lancaster for a memorial.

Wetzel, chairman of the full committee, said members felt the $25,000 asking price for the old flour mill, idle since about 1906, was too high.

The late Sherman Alspach acquired the water-powered mill, now owned by his daughters, Mary and Urcela Alspach.

Skidding Auto Blamed For Route 152 Crash

Moderate damage was caused to a Toronto area man's auto Wednesday night when it was struck by a hit-skip driver on Route 152, two miles west of Empire.

The Wintersville barracks of the State Highway Patrol said Joseph H. Scott, 39, of Toronto R.D. 1 was driving west on Route 152 when the unidentified driver failed to negotiate a slight right turn and slid across the center line into the Scott auto. The driver continued without stopping, the patrol said.

Campout Slated By Scout Troop

Plans for a campout this weekend were outlined at a committee meeting of Boy Scout Troop 38 of the Calvary Methodist Church Tuesday night at the home of Ben Weber, 914 Alton St.

Lawrence Bickle, Paul Grafton, Wayne Boley, Robert Davidson and Dick Skelton will be in charge tonight and Saturday at the site near Glasgow.

Ben Weber, John Weber and John Parsons will be in charge of the campfire Saturday night and Sunday's activities. They will be assisted by Terry Blyth, who is working for his God and Country Award.

Ben Weber, secretary, and John Weber, treasurer, gave reports. Wayne Connors was accepted as a new committee member.

Roll call and inspection for the troop will be May 27. Robert Davidson said he will present a trophy to the first boy from the troop who becomes an Eagle Scout. A plaque will be presented the second boy.

A new institutional representative is to be appointed. Ed Adkins, neighborhood commissioner, reviewed the duties of a committee member.

Mrs. Joan Weber served refreshments to eight members and a guest.

Jim Adams is in his sixth season as Army lacross coach. Three times the Cadets have won or shared the national collegiate title.

Doug Sanders Leads By One At Colonial

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Personable Doug Sanders, brandishing a blazing putter, carried a one-shot lead into the second round of the $60,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament today.

The easy-going Georgian with the unorthodox swing whittled three strokes from the grudging Colonial course Thursday during an afternoon marked by the disqualification of Don January.

January, who was invited to the tournament only after a lengthy PGA-Colonial controversy, played the wrong ball on the eighth hole and was forced to withdraw when he discovered his error.

Sanders' 67 gave him a one-shot laed over Bill Collins of Grossinger, N.Y.

Jerry Barber and Bob Rosburg were the only other pros to dent the sprawling 7,021-yard layout's regulation 70, each registering 69s.

Packed in a six-way tie for fifth with 71s were Jack Nicklaus, Bruce Crampton, Gardner Dickinson Jr., Phil Rodgers, Tony Lema and Julius Boros.

Doug Sanders 34-33—67
Bill Collins 35-33—68
Jerry Barber 34-35—69
Bob Rosburg 34-35—69
Bruce Crampton 36-35—71
Gardner Dickinson 37-34—71
Phil Rodgers 38-33—71
Tony Lema 38-33—71
Jack Nicklaus 37-34—71
Julius Boros 37-34—71

Losing Jets In Big Win

By The Associated Press

The Columbus Jets have lost more times this season than they've won. But when they do win, they don't fool around.

The Jets, in next-to-last place in the International League's Southern Division with an 11 - 14 record, used almost every offensive trick in the book plus an unbeatable defensive one—a shutout—to whip Arkansas 5-0 Thursday night.

Columbus' offensive included a double by Orlando McFarlane, a triple by Gary Rushing and a two-run homer by Rex Johnston—all which combined for three runs in the third—and Manny Mota's steal of home in the eighth.

The shutout was pitched by Tom Parsons, who scattered seven Traveler hits over nine innings.

In other games Thursday night, Syracuse shut out Rochester 1-0, Atlanta downed Buffalo 6-3, Indianapolis blanked Jacksonville 6 - 0 and Richmond whipped Toronto 7-4.

BASEBALL HEROES

By The Associated Press

BATTING — Frank Robinson, Reds, went 5-for-5, hitting two homers, two singles and double, and driving in seven runs in 13-3 walloping of Houston.

PITCHING—Ray Herbert, White Sox, allowed only two hits, posting third consecutive shutout and fourth in five games in 2-0 blanking of New York Yankees.

Giants' Staff Strong, O'Dell Goes Distance

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP)—If there's a chink in the San Francisco pitching armor, other teams should have such trouble.

The Giants, rolling along in first place in defense of the National League pennant, flashed pitching and power in sweeping a three-game series in Milwaukee and extending the Braves' losing streak to six.

Southpaw Billy O'Dell, a 19-game winner a year ago, posted his fourth victory without defeat by stopping the Braves 8-2 on seven hits Thursday. O'Dell became the seventh San Francisco pitcher to go the distance during the Giants' nine victories against one loss on an amazing road trip.

Manager Alvin Dark, who leans heavily on the time-worn phrase "we're playing one game at a time," was pleased by O'Dell's route-going performance, but insisted complete games don't mean too much.

With a flock of good hitters and a tight defense, the Giants only weakness in pre-season forecasts appeared to be pitching. However, they have been sailing along with starters Jack Sanford, Juan Marichal, Jack Fisher and O'Dell, and Billy Pierce in standby for spot assignments.

"We went out to get another starter pitcher last winter and came up with Fisher in a trade with Baltimore," Dark said. "He has been doing a fine job for us, winning three games so far."

Dark's pitching was so well set up that he named his starters for a three-game series with the Dodgers at Los Angeles, starting tonight. Sanford will open, followed by Marichal Saturday and Fisher on Sunday.

Dad's Advice Pays Off

CHICAGO (AP)—When Yankee outfielder Tom Tresh arrived in Detroit Sunday night for a series with the Tigers, father Mike Tresh was on hand with a few pointers on batting. Tresh senior told Tom to shorten his swing. Tom's seven hits in 13 trips upped his average to .299.

Face New Zealanders

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jim Beatty and Jim Grelle will compete in the 5,000-meter and mile runs against New Zealanders Murray Halberg and Peter Snell in the Coliseum Relays May 17.

After 15 seasons in the National League, Richie Ashburn retired this season with a .308 career average.

Michigan U. Grid Player Is Arrested

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Dave Raimey, star football player at the University of Michigan, was arrested Thursday night after driving his car through a group of students at Central State College in Wilberforce.

The Highway Patrol said at least three students, two girls and a boy, were knocked to the ground by the car which Raimey was attempting to drive off campus. None was believed to be hurt seriously although one of the girls was to be x-rayed for a possible hip injury.

Raimey, 22, of Dayton was driving slowly and apparently thought the students, who were singing on a campus driveway, would move aside, the patrol said.

The patrol cited him for reckless operation and he was freed on $100 bond pending a hearing Saturday. College authorities said he may face more serious charges, however.

Raimey returned to Dayton after the incident and was arrested at his home and returned here. Don Darling, campus policeman, said he planned to confer with the Greene County prosecutor today on possible charges of leaving the scene of an accident and resisting arrest.

West Beaver Drops Finale

The Western Beaver Golden Beavers went down to their fourth defeat in the last five games, bowing to the Mohawk Indians by a 4-3 count in the season finale at Mohawk Thursday afternoon.

Richard Shingler's Beavers finished the season with a dismal 4-6 record. Mohawk finished with a 5-5 slate.

Mohawk clinched the game with two runs in the last of the seventh. They combined a single, two fielder's choice, a walk and a passed ball for their two tallies.

Bill Doyle went the route on the hill for Western and only gave up three hits but walks and errant plays led to his downfall.

Lou Piscioneri was the winning hurler for Mohawk. He issued nine hits, including two ripples, while whiffing three Western batters and walking two.

Four Western batters had two-for-three days at the plate. Pat Marron, Paul Prodonovich, Terry Dawson and Don Holben all connected for two safeties.

Marron had one of the triples and drove in two runs. Prodonovich drove in the other run.

Doyle has the only other extra-base blow, a three-bagger in the seventh inning.

Four seniors closed out a short playing career at Western Beaver. They are Doyle, Holben, Chuck Krause.

Wings' Howe Named MVP In Ice Loop

MONTREAL (AP) — Detroit's ageless Gordie Howe has won the Hart Trophy as the National Hockey League's Most Valuable Player for an unprecedented sixth time.

The league announced today Howe polled 81 of a possible 90 points in voting for the second half of the season, giving him a season total of 111 points, more than double Chicago's Stan Mikita's total of 54.

Howe, an effortless-skating right winger who turned 35 at the season's end, was superb in the last half of the season.

He roared from behind to win the league scoring title for the sixth time—also a record—with 86 points. His total of 38 goals was the league high.

The slope-shouldered, 202-pounder from the hamlet of Floral, Sask., has racked up a league record of 1,202 points in his 17 NHL seasons. Last season he drew near Maurice Richar's record of 544 goals in league play, finishing the season with 540.

Terry Bartolet of Easton, Pa., captain of Harvard's baseball team, plans a career in medicine. The second baseman hit .374 last season.

Umbricht Feels Good, Bothered By Control

CINCINNATI (AP)—Jim Umbricht wasn't unahppy despite being roughed up by Cincinnati Reds hitting in his first appearance since major cancer surgery.

"I felt real good," he said Thursday night after the Reds beat the Houston Colts 13-3. "Nothing bothered me but my control."

Umbricht's sixth inning relief stint came only hours after he was reinstated to the active list. Only two months ago he underwent a seven-hour operation for a malignant growth on his right leg.

He gave up four runs on three hits and a walk Thursday night.

He said his work showed some expected faults—"I'm not throwing real well or keeping the ball down.

"That was my first inning of the season I gotta pitch myself back into shape and to put the ball where I want to put it.

"I also want to get back into regular pitching."

Midland Ends Season With 7-5 Victory

Paul Farnan's Midland Leopard nine closed their season in fine fashion, defeating the Center Trojans 7-5 in a Section 4 contest at Midland Thursday afternoon.

The Leopards finished the season in third place in the section race with an even 5-5 slate. Center, in its first year of competition, failed to win a game in 10 section outings.

Jack Webb of Midland and Dave Foore of Center dueled for seven innings on the hill. Webb gave up 10 hits a while striking out three and walking two batters.

Foore was reached for eight safeties, including three extra-base blows, and he whiffed and passed four Midland hitters.

Midland scored a single run in the first inning, two in the second, three in the fifth and a final one in the sixth.

Center's big inning was the seventh, when they erupted for four runs in a vain attempt to overtake the Leopards.

Jim Miller led the Midland attack with two doubles in three trips to the plate. Webb collected two singles in three tries.

Jim Harty and Joe Prodonovich of the Leopards had a double and a three-bagger respectively.

Carl Urban, Trojan first sacker, was the only player who hit safely three times. He delivered a big two-bagger in the big Center seventh frame.

Seniors who played their last game for Midland were Harty and Obrad Cvetovich.

Pittsburgh Firm Has Low Bid On Pressbox

MORGANTOWN (AP) — The Mellon-Stuart Co. of Pittsburgh submitted a low bid of $201,600 yesterday for construction of a modern steel, aluminum and glass pressbox at West Virginia University's Mountaineer Field.

The only other bid was $211,300 by Baker and Coombs of Morgantown.

The three-level structure would be the first major improvement in news distribution facilities at the stadium since it was built in 1924.

The new pressbox would make available 520 additional choice seats for public use.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

So Who Needs Any New Comics?

I finally have the answer for that old question, "Where are the new comedians coming from?" It doesn't matter where they're coming from. We can't use them anyway. If they do come, we'll have to send them back.

Hal Humphrey

Why? Because the old comedians aren't leaving, that's why. Try to name just one comedian who has retired since Weber and Fields. When you ask one of these aging veterans of comedy if he is thinking of retiring, he says, "Hey, you should have seen me on Como's show—highest rating the kid ever had."

-:-

THE GOSSIPS were whispering that Jack Benny was going to begin tapering off a couple of years ago. He fooled them by pushing his schedule up to a once-a-week show in the fall of 1960.

This year, in addition to the weekly TV show, several charity concerts and a few bar mitzvahs, Jack did six weeks at New York's Ziegfield Theater.

Red Skelton, who has been in and out of the hospital enough the past few years to get a whole new insides, confounded his medics and the insurance company by expanding his weekly show to an hour this season.

-:-

BUT THE CHAMP of all time is Bob Hope. During the past week, it was impossible to turn on your TV set and not catch Rapid Robert plugging his new book, his latest movie or toothpaste—or all three.

On Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show, Bob sounded like a kid whose candy had been yanked away from him.

"I was up all night on a plane from Los Angeles so I'd be here in time to do Godfrey's show, and then I find out it's pre-taped and my picture will open before the Godfrey show goes on the air," he told Carson.

Before leaving Los Angeles, Bob had spoken before a group of book dealers in Pasadena and taped an Andy Williams show and his own final show of the season (to be aired next Wednesday).

BESIDES a flock of TV appearances and an emcee chore at the Waldorf-Astoria, iron man Hope will board a bus in New York City and tour 21 theaters showing his movie.

What's Bob trying to prove? That there will always be a Bob Hope, what else? He was quite upset that his special TV shows this season wound up slotted against the No. 1 rated "Beverly Hillbillies." He rarely managed to outpoint and outcorn them, so he made sure NBC isn't making the same mistake next season.

Beginning in October, Bob will be on every week as host of a drama series, besides six variety shows and two dramas in which he also will star. He no doubt will find time for another movie or two in there somewhere.

WHILE THE HOPES, Bennys and Skeltons are guarding the comedy bastions on TV, standing in the wings will be Milton Berle, George Burns, Georgie Jessel, Groucho Marx, Ed Wynn, Jimmy Durante—all ready at the drop of an ad lib to enter from stage right to prove that old comics never fade away.

While they wait, this latter group spends a few weeks in Las Vegas at one of the hotels there, pulling down more money in a month than a new comic coming up now can hope to make in a life time.

Some junior-grade veterans like Sid Caesar, Jerry Lewis, Danny Kaye and Jackie Gleason will be hanging in there on TV with regular shows next fall, but they still have to prove themselves.

WE WON'T KNOW for another 20 years yet whether or not they have the stamina to tape a TV show, do the commercials, write a book and entertain the troops in South Korea all in the same day.

Look at Mort Sahl, Bob Newhart, Shelley Berman, George Gobel, who were hailed a few years ago as the "new comedians." They can't get regular work on TV and have to content themselves with touring the night-club circuit for a paltry $150,000 a year.

Yes, I said paltry. Hope never goes out of the house without that much in loose change in his pocket.

So, if you're raising your kid to be a comic, forget it. There's no room at the top.

Farm Chief's Future Linked To Wheat Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Ohio congressman predicts that Orville Freeman's future as secretary of agriculture is riding on the result of the May 21 wheat referendum.

Rep. Delbert Latta, R-Ohio, said Thursday that Freeman has been "the administration's chief advocate of mandatory controls for all of agriculture," and "if wheat farmers reject this last remnant of his mandatory proposals, his future usefulness to the administration will be less than negligible."

German Ambassador Gets Honorary Degree

CINCINNATI (AP) — K. Heinrich Knappstein, West German ambassador to the United States, has received an honorary doctorate of laws from his old alma mater, the University of Cincinnati.

Knappstein, an exchange student at Cincinnati in 1930-1931, was given the honorary doctorate Thursday night during the school's annual military review.

NOTICE
THE STATE OF OHIO, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, SS: ROBERT R. BYCROFT, Administrator of the Estate of LAWRENCE EDWARD JONES, Deceased, Plaintiff, vs. ROBERT R. BYCROFT, Administrator of the Estate of ROSA JONES, also known as "Lena Jones", Deceased; the Unknown Heirs of ROSA JONES, also known as "Lena Jones", Deceased, and the Unknown Heirs of LAWRENCE EDWARD JONES, Deceased, Defendants.
IN THE PROBATE COURT
Case No. 58924-A
The unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, administrators, executors and assigns of Lawrence Edward Jones, Deceased, and Rosa Jones, also known as "Lena Jones", Deceased, will take notice that Robert R. Bycroft, Administrator of the Estate of Lawrence Edward Jones, Deceased, on the 6 day of May, 1963, filed his Petition in the Probate Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, the same being designated as Case No. 58924-A, Docket 68 Page 256, for consent to sell the following described real estate to pay debts:
Situated in the Township of Washington, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, and bounded and described as follows:
Situated in the Township of Washington, Columbiana County, Ohio, and being a part of the northwest quarter of section No. 6, Range No. 3, in Washington Township, as recorded in Deed Book 79, Pages 420 and 421 of the Deed Records of said County, and known as "THE MALCOLM CAMERON FARM", and bounded as follows:—On the East by lands of the Grange Hall, J. E. Brittain and John Duncan, on the South by lands of Lewis Metz, a 60 foot street abutment, and a part of lot No. 19 of the Village of Highlandtown, on the West by the B. H. Curry and Goldie R. Curry tract, on the North by a 20 foot lane and containing 7-8 (seven-eighths) of an acre of land, more or less, but subject to all legal highways, together with a perpetual right of way over a 20 foot lane, thence North along the north line of the B. H. Curry and Goldie R. Curry tract, the John E. Brittain tract and the Grange tract to the Lisbon Road for ingress and egress to said above described tract of land and being the same premises and right of way conveyed to John E. Brittain by Blanche Hinze by Warranty Deed, dated April 25, 1925, and recorded in Vol. 490 Page 295 reference to which deed and record is here made.
All the road rights now enjoyed by and owned by Grantee is hereby conveyed to Grantors to be used together with Grantee, as now enjoyed by her.
DEED REFERENCE: Vol. 584 Page 583.
The prayer in said Petition is that he may be authorized and ordered to sell the entire interest in said described real estate, according to the statute in such cases made and provided, and for such other and further relief to which he may be entitled.
The persons above named will further take notice that they have been made parties defendant to said Petition and that they are required to answer the same on or before the 8th day of June, 1963, at 9:30 o'clock, A.M., DST.

2 Records May Be Lowered . . .

Several records may fall, Columbiana looms as the favorite and East Liverpool has a runner that could capture distance events.

That's how the picture shapes up for the 60th running of the County Track and Field meet tonight at Salem's Reilly Stadium.

The weather man has cooperated so far and a fast track is promised.

Records could be lowered in two events. Jim Ward, Columbiana's junior star, has a shot at the mark in the 100-yard dash held by George Gaines of 10 seconds flat. Ward already has been clocked in 9.8 this season.

Salem's crack mile relay team has been running very close to the county record of 3.37.3 held by a quartet of Potter runners — Art Peters, Dave Betteridge, Jim Paynter and Bill O'Neil set in 1958

★ ★ ★ ★

FRED COPE, the veteran director of the county meet when it is held at Salem, is usually correct on his predictions and he has picked Columbiana to win the title tonight.

He pointed out the Columbiana, with nearly the same team back again this year, came within four points of defeating Salem in 1962 at East Palestine. The Quakers lost nine regulars from last year's team.

★ ★ ★ ★

EAST LIVERPOOL finished a poor sixth in the 1962 meet, but has a chance to score in the distance events.

Ed Loy, who was ineligible last year, has been lowering his time in the mile and a half-mile events and appears to be the Potters' strongest contender for a first place.

Coach Norm Six points out that Loy hasn't been pressed in any of his dual meet victories and the easy striding Loy turned in his best times earlier this week in a meet with West Allegheny.

He ripped over the mile course in 4:45 and turned in a 2:08 clocking in the half-mile.

Loy will have to do slightly better tonight though if he expects to win, since Salem has a miler in John Tarleton who has toured the distance in 4:33 and two half-milers, Tom Pim and Phil Brantingham, who have been clocked at 2:06.

Johnstone Hurls Against Mets . . .

TERRY JOHNSTONE of East Liverpool, now hurling for the United States Military Academy, received a chance Monday to hurl against a Major League team.

The righthander pitched the middle three innings against the New York Mets, who came into West Point for their annual game with the Cadets and he did quite well against the National League team.

In his three innings, Johnstone only gave up one hit, didn't allow a run and struck out two.

The Mets broke up a scoreless tie in the last inning to gain a 3-0 victory over Army.

Last week, Johnstone was the winning pitcher in relief as Army edged Brown, 5-4.

Local Pitcher Has Shutout . . .

ANOTHER local pitcher — Dave Pennybaker — turned in the first shutout by an Eastern Nazarene College pitcher in three years when he hurled a 6-0 decision over Nasson College of Springfield, Me.

The righthander only gave three hits and collected a single.

Last week, Pennybaker had the distinction of winning and losing a game on the same day.

Against Husson College, Dave started and had pitched 17 innings of scoreless ball until he was touched for four runs in one inning.

In that game, Eastern Nazarene trailed 6-3 going into the final inning but Pennybaker got a key hit in a late rally and scored the winning run to give himself another mound victory.

Later that day, Eastern Nazarene played Nasson College again and Pennybaker was summoned in relief and lost 9-8 on an unearned run. Altogether he pitched 12 innings in one day and came up with a 1-1 record.

Hs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pennybaker, 806 Bank St.

Slow Pitch Meeting Set . . .

SLOW PITCH softball, which was very popular in its first fling here last year, will be organized again this summer.

Bob Hedmond, a supervisor at Thompson Park, has asked that anyone interested in entering a team attend a meeting next Thursday at 6 p. m. at the Thompson Park pool.

Hedmond expects more teams than last year when the park operated a 10-team league.

Robbie's 5-Of-5 Pace Reds; Cubs Sweep Set With Bucs

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Frank Robinson, a notoriously slow starter, went 5-for-5 and drove in seven runs on two homers, two singles and a double Thursday night as Cincinnati erupted for its biggest offensive output of the season and crushed Houston 13-3.

It was easily Robinson's best night and gave every indication that his bat, usually rather quiet in April, is beginning to point toward the ball like a divining rod.

The 27-year-old right-handed swinger now has six homers and 22 runs batted in.

The St. Louis Cardinals bombed the Los Angeles Dodgers for 17 hits, including a grand slam homer by Bill White, in a 10-7 victory.

First-place San Francisco beat Milwaukee 8-2, Chicago's second-place Cubs ran their winning streak to six by beating Pittsburgh 3-1 behind Dick Ellsworth's two-hitter and the New York Mets made it four in a row with a 3-2 decision over Philadelphia.

White hit the first pitch by Dodger reliever Dick Scott for his grand slam as the Cards exploded for seven runs in the fifth inning. Gene Oliver and Charlie James also homered for St. Louis.

Felipe Alou drove in three runs with his seventh homer and two doubles and scored four runs in the Giants' victory at Milwaukee.

The Cubs won their ninth in 10 games as Ellsworth allowed only a second inning single by Donn Clendenon and Dick Schofield's single in the ninth.

Tim Harkness drove in two runs with a bases-loaded single and Johnny Klippstein uncorked a wild pitch that sent the winning run home in a three-run ninth inning uprising that gave the Mets a sweep of the three-game series with the Phillies.

Herbert Gives Yanks 2 Hits

PITTSBURGH'S Jim Pagliaroni scores the Pirates only run in Thursday's 3-1 loss to the Chicago Cubs as he slides across the plate in the third inning on Don Schwall's sacrifice fly to right field. Cubs' catcher Jim Schaffer takes the late throw. (UPI Telephoto)

Grant Fails To Top Nats In 6-0 Loss

By The Associated Press

Ray Herbert was just another good journeyman pitcher before he made his way to Chicago. But there, under manager Al Lopez, he found the magic touch.

Herbert hadn't caused many sensations in eight seasons at Detroit and Kansas City, although he won almost as many as he lost. One season he even won more than he lost

Then came the trade to Chicago. Last year, his first full season with the White Sox, he had a 20-9 record and led the league in won-lost percentage.

This season his start is even better. He's 4-1 and all the victories have been shutouts, the last three in a row. The last was a two-hit, 2-0 blanking of the New York Yankees Thursday night that protected the White Sox' one-game lead atop the standings and dropped the Yankees to fifth.

Baltimore climbed into a share of second with a 4-1 triumph over Boston while Washington finally got around to beating Mudcat Grant, whipping the Cleveland Indians 6-0 behind Dave Stenhouse, in the only other games scheduled.

Herbert, 33, a right-hander, allowed the stumbling Yankees only three base runers in extending his scoreless inning string to 27.

Grant had won 12 straight in Washington before the Senators finally got to him. He left in the fourth after Ed Brinkman unloaded a three-run homer. Stenhouse spaced seven hits in gaining his first shutout of the season.

Chuck Estrada and Stu Miller combined for a three-hitter in the Orioles' victory over Boston.

ARNIE PALMER rears back after missing a putt on the 13th hole in the Colonial Golf Tourney which opened Thursday at Fort Worth. Palmer finished the first round with a 4 over par 74, seven strokes behind Doug Sanders. (UPI Telephoto)

Steeler Defensive Star Claimed

'Big Daddy' Lipscomb Dies

BALTIMORE (AP)—Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb, a giant among giants of professional football, died today under mysterious circumstances in a West Baltimore house.

A defensive tackle with three National Football League teams for 10 seasons, the 31-year-old Negro was pronounced dead at Lutheran Hospital shortly before 8 a.m.

Former teammates, including one with whom he had been living for four years in Baltimore, identified the body. It was sent to the morgue to determine the cause of death which was listed by the hospital as unknown.

Police quoted Timothy Black, 25, as telling them he had been with Lipscomb in the house and "there had been drinking going on."

Police added they also were investigating whether narcotics was involved.

Black told police he left the house for a time and when he returned he found Lipscomb slumped over a kitchen table on the second floor.

The accident room at Lutheran Hospital, which made the identification of the famous football player, said cause of death was not known.

The body was sent to the city morgue for an autopsy. An ambulance was called to a house in the western part of the city this morning and Lipscomb's body was found on the kitchen floor.

Lipscomb, who was traded to the Steelers by the Baltimore Colts on the first day of practice two seasons ago, was taken to the hospital at 7:17 a.m.

Lipscomb was one of the stars of the professional game. He weighed 288 pounds and stood 6-foot-6. He was 31 and had played 10 years in the National Football League. He came to professional football without the benefit of college experience.

Lipscomb reached the peak of his career in 1958 and 1959 when he made the All-Pro team.

Lipscomb and his wife, Cecilia, were divorced in 1960. They had two children.

In Pittsburgh, Steelers Coach Buddy Parker was shocked when he learned the news.

"I just heard it on the radio," Parker told The Associated Press as his voice cracked. "I can't believe it. It was out of the clear blue."

Parker called Lipscomb "one of the best tackles the league ever had."

Potters Held To 3 Hits In 7-1 Setback

The East Liverpool Potters were limited to three hits in bowing 5-1 to Carrollton Thursday afternoon at Patterson Field.

Carrollton's Harper allowed the Potters three singles as the visitors broke a 1-1 tie in the first inning by scoring a single run in the third, two in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Ron Burns the starting pitcher was checked with the loss as three Potter hurlers gave up six hits.

The Potters scored their lone run in the first inning on an error, a single by Tom Kraft and ground out.

Officers Re-Elected In Women's Bowling

All officers have been re-elected in the East Liverpool Women's Bowling Association.

Mary Lou Springer is president, Sara Hague, vice president; Jeris Wilson, secretary; June McVay, treasurer and Jennie Hoffman, sergeant-at-arms.

The next meeting will be held in August for the distribution of winter league supplies.

Mets Option Throneberry After Winning 4 In Row

NEW YORK (AP)—This, then, is the end of an era. Marvelous Marv is gone.

And a lot of the clown has gone out of the New York Mets.

Marv Throneberry, whose play around first base made him the living symbol of the hapless Mets last season, has been optioned to Buffalo of the International League.

Perhaps by coincidence, the Mets suddenly are acting most un-Met-like. They've won four in a row, the last two with ninth inning rallies. Their pitching has been good, at times spectacular. They're getting just enough hitting. Their fielding is above reproach and they haven't pulled a rock in a week.

Which isn't at all like the Mets of a year ago who, as personified by the luckless Throneberry, lost a record 120 games.

"Things just seem to happen to me," Throneberry once remarked of his play. And indeed they did. Usually they were bad things. Or at least comical.

Not that Marv planned it that way. It just happened. And, in one year, he became a legend in his own time.

That, however, didn't prevent him from losing the regular first base job to Tim Harkness and rookie Ed Kranepool. So Marvelous Marv was shuffled off to Buffalo Thursday in the Mets' cutdown to a roster of 25.

Regular membership in the United States Golf Association cost $50 a year for clubs with 18 holes or more.

Floyd Says Fight Is Set For July 22

NEW YORK (AP) — Neither Floyd Patterson's injured finger nor his projected trip to strife-torn Birmingham, Ala., will cause any further delay in his rematch with heavyweight champion Sonny Liston, Patterson insists.

Patterson was knocked out in the first round of his first fight with Liston. Their oft-postponed rematch now is scheduled for Las Vegas July 22.

"The fight definitely will go on July 22," the former champion said Thursday. "Even if my hand hasn't healed, it will go on. There will be no more delay on my part."

Nor, said Patterson, would his trip to racially-troubled Birmingham delay the bout, though he added:

"I expect to be arrested. I expect to be handled roughly and put in jail. If they do put me in jail, I imagine there will be somebody to put up bail."

Patterson and baseball Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson said they were going to Birmingham next Monday.

8-Team Tri-County Loop To Open Season Sunday

All eight teams are scheduled to play Sunday when the Tri-County Baseball League launches its 1963 season.

Opening games show Jewett at Wellsville with Bergholz playing at Salineville, Irondale will host Beloit and Carrollton visits Kilgore.

A 35-game schedule will be played and games are scheduled on Wednesdays and Sundays.

An all-star game is scheduled under the lights at Carrollton on July 7. A round robin tournament will be held at the completion of the season.

The Wellsville roster this season will have new talent in John Martin, Butch Cunningham, Jim Howell, Jerry Cannon, Curtis Shanks, Don Welch, Franklin Jackson and Bob Campbell.

Doug Sanders Leads By One At Colonial

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Personable Doug Sanders, brandishing a blazing putter, carried a one-shot lead into the second round of the $60,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament today.

The easy-going Georgian with the unorthodox swing whittled three strokes from the grudging Colonial course Thursday during an afternoon marked by the disqualification of Don January.

January, who was invited to the tournament only after a lengthy PGA-Colonial controversy, played the wrong ball on the eighth hole and was forced to withdraw when he discovered his error.

Sanders' 67 gave him a one-shot laed over Bill Collins of Grossinger, N.Y.

Jerry Barber and Bob Rosburg were the only other pros to dent the sprawling 7,021-yard layout's regulation 70, each registering 69s.

Packed in a six-way tie for fifth with 71s were Jack Nicklaus, Bruce Crampton, Gardner Dickinson Jr., Phil Rodgers, Tony Lema and Julius Boros.

Doug Sanders 34-33—67
Bill Collins 35-33—68

Losing Jets In Big Win

By The Associated Press

The Columbus Jets have lost more times this season than they've won. But when they do win, they don't fool around.

The Jets, in next-to-last place in the International League's Southern Division with an 11 - 14 record, used almost every offensive trick in the book plus an unbeatable defensive one—a shutout—to whip Arkansas 5-0 Thursday night.

Columbus' offensive included a double by Orlando McFarlane, a triple by Gary Rushing and a two-run homer by Rex Johnston—all which combined for three runs in the third—and Manny Mota's steal of home in the eighth.

The shutout was pitched by Tom Parsons, who scattered seven Traveler hits over nine innings.

In other games Thursday night, Syracuse shut out Rochester 1-0, Atlanta downed Buffalo 6-3, Indianapolis blanked Jacksonville 6 - 0 and Richmond whipped Toronto 7-4.

BASEBALL HEROES

By The Associated Press

BATTING — Frank Robinson, Reds, went 5-for-5, hitting two homers, two singles and double, and driving in seven runs in 13-3 walloping of Houston.

PITCHING—Ray Herbert, White Sox, allowed only two hits, posting third consecutive shutout and fourth in five games in 2-0 blanking of New York Yankees.

Giants' Staff Strong, O'Dell Goes Distance

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP)—If there's a chink in the San Francisco pitching armor, other teams should have such trouble.

The Giants, rolling along in first place in defense of the National League pennant, flashed pitching and power in sweeping a three-game series in Milwaukee and extending the Braves' losing streak to six.

Southpaw Billy O'Dell, a 19-game winner a year ago, posted his fourth victory without defeat by stopping the Braves 8-2 on seven hits Thursday. O'Dell became the seventh San Francisco pitcher to go the distance during the Giants' nine victories against one loss on an amazing road trip.

Manager Alvin Dark, who leans heavily on the time-worn phrase "we're playing one game at a time," was pleased by O'Dell's route-going performance, but insisted complete games don't mean too much.

With a flock of good hitters and a tight defense, the Giants only weakness in pre-season forecasts appeared to be pitching. However, they have been sailing along with starters Jack Sanford, Juan Marichal, Jack Fisher and O'Dell, and Billy Pierce in standby for spot assignments.

"We went out to get another starter pitcher last winter and came up with Fisher in a trade with Baltimore," Dark said. "He has been doing a fine job for us, winning three games so far."

Dark's pitching was so well set up that he named his starters for a three-game series with the Dodgers at Los Angeles, starting tonight. Sanford will open, followed by Marichal Saturday and Fisher on Sunday.

Dad's Advice Pays Off

CHICAGO (AP)—When Yankee outfielder Tom Tresh arrived in Detroit Sunday night for a series with the Tigers, father Mike Tresh was on hand with a few pointers on batting. Tresh senior told Tom to shorten his swing. Tom's seven hits in 13 trips upped his average to .299.

Face New Zealanders

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jim Beatty and Jim Grelle will compete in the 5,000-meter and mile runs against New Zealanders Murray Halberg and Peter Snell in the Coliseum Relays May 17.

After 15 seasons in the National League, Richie Ashburn retired this season with a .308 career average.

Michigan U. Grid Player Is Arrested

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Dave Raimey, star football player at the University of Michigan, was arrested Thursday night after driving his car through a group of students at Central State College in Wilberforce.

The Highway Patrol said at least three students, two girls and a boy, were knocked to the ground by the car which Raimey was attempting to drive off campus. None was believed to be hurt seriously although one of the girls was to be x-rayed for a possible hip injury.

Raimey, 22, of Dayton was driving slowly and apparently thought the students, who were singing on a campus driveway, would move aside, the patrol said.

The patrol cited him for reckless operation and he was freed on $100 bond pending a hearing Saturday. College authorities said he may face more serious charges, however.

Raimey returned to Dayton after the incident and was arrested at his home and returned here. Don Darling, campus policeman, said he planned to confer with the Greene County prosecutor today on possible charges of leaving the scene of an accident and resisting arrest.

West Beaver Drops Finale

The Western Beaver Golden Beavers went down to their fourth defeat in the last five games, bowing to the Mohawk Indians by a 4-3 count in the season finale at Mohawk Thursday afternoon.

Richard Shingler's Beavers finished the season with a dismal 4-6 record. Mohawk finished with a 5-5 slate.

Mohawk clinched the game with two runs in the last of the seventh. They combined a single, two fielder's choice, a walk and a passed ball for their two tallies.

Bill Doyle went the route on the hill for Western and only gave up three hits but walks and errant plays led to his downfall.

Lou Piscioneri was the winning hurler for Mohawk. He issued nine hits, including two riples, while whiffing three Western batters and walking two.

Four Western batters had two-for-three days at the plate. Pat Marron, Paul Prodonovich, Terry Dawson and Don Holben all connected for two safeties.

Marron had one of the triples and drove in two runs. Prodonovich drove in the other run.

Doyle has the only other extra-base blow, a three-bagger in the seventh inning.

Four seniors closed out a short playing career at Western Beaver. They are Doyle, Holben, Chuck Krause.

Wings' Howe Named MVP In Ice Loop

MONTREAL (AP) — Detroit's ageless Gordie Howe has won the Hart Trophy as the National Hockey League's Most Valuable Player for an unprecedented sixth time.

The league announced today Howe polled 81 of a possible 90 points in voting for the second half of the season, giving him a season total of 111 points, more than double Chicago's Stan Mikita's total of 54.

Howe, an effortless-skating right winger who turned 35 at the season's end, was superb in the last half of the season.

He roared from behind to win the league scoring title for the sixth time—also a record—with 86 points. His total of 38 goals was the league high.

The slope-shouldered, 202-pounder from the hamlet of Floral, Sask., has racked up a league record of 1,202 points in his 17 NHL seasons. Last season he drew near Maurice Richar's record of 544 goals in league play, finishing the season with 540.

Terry Bartolet of Easton, Pa., captain of Harvard's baseball team, plans a career in medicine. The second baseman hit .374 last season.

Umbricht Feels Good, Bothered By Control

CINCINNATI (AP)—Jim Umbricht wasn't unahppy despite being roughed up by Cincinnati Reds hitting in his first appearance since major cancer surgery.

"I felt real good," he said Thursday night after the Reds beat the Houston Colts 13-3. "Nothing bothered me but my control."

Umbricht's sixth inning relief stint came only hours after he was reinstated to the active list. Only two months ago he underwent a seven-hour operation for a malignant growth on his right leg.

He gave up four runs on three hits and a walk Thursday night.

He said his work showed some expected faults—"I'm not throwing real well or keeping the ball down.

"That was my first inning of the season I gotta pitch myself back into shape and to put the ball where I want to put it.

"I also want to get back into regular pitching."

Midland Ends Season With 7-5 Victory

Paul Farnan's Midland Leopard nine closed their season in fine fashion, defeating the Center Trojans 7-5 in a Section 4 contest at Midland Thursday afternoon.

The Leopards finished the season in third place in the section race with an even 5-5 slate. Center, in its first year of competition, failed to win a game in 10 section outings.

Jack Webb of Midland and Dave Foore of Center dueled for seven innings on the hill. Webb gave up 10 hits a while striking out three and walking two batters.

Foore was reached for eight safeties, including three extra-base blows, and he whiffed and passed four Midland hitters.

Midland scored a single run in the first inning, two in the second, three in the fifth and a final one in the sixth.

Center's big inning was the seventh, when they erupted for four runs in a vain attempt to overtake the Leopards.

Jim Miller led the Midland attack with two doubles in three trips to the plate. Webb collected two singles in three tries.

Jim Harty and Joe Prodonovich of the Leopards had a double and a three-bagger respectively.

Carl Urban, Trojan first sacker, was the only player who hit safely three times. He delivered a big two-bagger in the big Center seventh frame.

Seniors who played their last game for Midland were Harty and Obrad Cvetovich.

Pittsburgh Firm Has Low Bid On Pressbox

MORGANTOWN (AP) — The Mellon-Stuart Co. of Pittsburgh submitted a low bid of $201,600 yesterday for construction of a modern steel, aluminum and glass pressbox at West Virginia University's Mountaineer Field.

The only other bid was $211,300 by Baker and Coombs of Morgantown.

The three-level structure would be the first major improvement in news distribution facilities at the stadium since it was built in 1924.

The new pressbox would make available 520 additional choice seats for public use.

"I wondered about Butch getting all those law books to prove his innocence!"

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make an easier job of painting a wire fence?

A. Try using a piece of ¼-inch hardboard on one side as a backstop and brush on your paint from the other side. The hardboard is fastened in place with wires. Use a wide brush as when painting a board fence. This method saves the surrounding landscape from an unwelcome and unsightly spattering of paint.

Q. What is a good formula for furniture polish?

A. A recommended formula is: Two parts of vinegar to one part of olive oil. Put a small amount of this mixture on a soft cloth and rub it into the wood. The effect is a fresh, bright polish.

Q. How can I make a substitute solder to mend a leak in a sprinkling can or other such article?

A. Yellow soap pressed securely into the leak will prove a good temporary substitute for solder.

Q. How can I remedy a rug that has lost its stiffness?

A. Get sizing from a rug-supply dealer. It comes in powder or grain form, some kinds to be mixed with hot water, others with cold. To apply, turn the rug upside down on the floor, pour the sizing liberally out of a pot or saucepan, then spread around evenly with a broom. It'll take about two days or so before the rug is dry enough to turn over.

Q. How can I remedy "sweating" water pipes in my basement?

A. Procure special insulating strips, sold in all plumbing establishments. Wipe the pipes dry, cut the strips to cover four or five feet at a time. Use cord to hold the wrappings on the pipe while winding it.

TEETH

QUESTION: Does brushing your teeth keep them from turning yellow?

ANSWER: In his imaginative upper picture, our artist has suggested that if an elephant was human, he might try to keep his beautiful tusks clean and shining by working over them with a tooth brush. Of course the real elephant doesn't need a tooth brush, because he uses his tusks for grubbing down under the soil to uncover certain roots he is fond of eating, and this keeps his tusks clean. Many animals keep their teeth clean the same way — by chewing hard materials which polish them. No doubt early man's teeth kept clean as they ate hard roots and gnawed on bones. But we civilized people live on cooked foods which are softer and don't polish our teeth as we eat. That is why we need to use toothbrushes.

Dentists say that brushing teeth will definitely keep them from getting dirty looking in color. They say, however, that teeth have different colors, and some sets of teeth may be naturally more inclined to be yellow than others. Here's how the American Dental Association advises you to brush your teeth: 1. Place bristles of brush toward roots of teeth, use rotating motion so bristles sweep down over both gums and teeth toward biting surface. 2. Brush 10 strokes in each place. 3. Brush upper teeth down.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Memorize rules above and these extra ones: 4. Brush lower teeth up. 5. Brush gum surfaces next to cheeks and next to the tongue. Happy biting!

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Friday, May 10, highlights in history:

On this date in 1869, the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans were linked by rail when the golden spike was driven by President Leland Stanford of the Central Pacific Railroad at Promontoryoint, Utah.

In 1775, the Second Continental Congress convened in Philadelphia.

In 1871, France ceded Alsace-Lorraine to Germany.

In 1917, Gen. John J. Pershing was appointed commander of the American Expeditionary Force in World War I.

In 1933, the Nazis staged their book-burning in Berlin.

Ten years ago, the South African Liberal Association organized a campaign for equal rights for all races.

Five years ago, the U.S Information Service library in Tripoli was sacked and burned.

One year ago, medical and hospital treatment in New York City came under strong criticism in a report issued by Columbia University.

Countess Adios, second ranking money - winning pacing mare in history with $303,773, won her first three starts as a trotter at Santa Anita this winter.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

So Who Needs Any New Comics?

I finally have the answer for that old question, "Where are the new comedians coming from?" It doesn't matter where they're coming from. We can't use them anyway. If they do come, we'll have to send them back.

Hal Humphrey

Why? Because the old comedians aren't leaving, that's why. Try to name just one comedian who has retired since Weber and Fields. When you ask one of these aging veterans of comedy if he is thinking of retiring, he says, "Hey, you should have seen me on Como's show—highest rating the kid ever had."

-:-

THE GOSSIPS were whispering that Jack Benny was going to begin tapering off a couple of years ago. He fooled them by pushing his schedule up to a once-a-week show in the fall of 1960.

This year, in addition to the weekly TV show, several charity concerts and a few bar mitzvahs, Jack did six weeks at New York's Ziegfield Theater.

Red Skelton, who has been in and out of the hospital enough the past few years to get a whole new insides, confounded his medics and the insurance company by expanding his weekly show to an hour this season.

-:-

BUT THE CHAMP of all time is Bob Hope. During the past week, it was impossible to turn on your TV set and not catch Rapid Robert plugging his new book, his latest movie or toothpaste—or all three.

On Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show, Bob sounded like a kid whose candy had been yanked away from him.

"I was up all night on a plane from Los Angeles so I'd be here in time to do Godfrey's show, and then I find out it's pretaped and my picture will open before the Godfrey show goes on the air," he told Carson.

Before leaving Los Angeles, Bob had spoken before a group of book dealers in Pasadena and taped an Andy Williams show and his own final show of the season (to be aired next Wednesday).

BESIDES a flock of TV appearances and an emcee chore at the Waldorf-Astoria, iron man Hope will board a bus in New York City and tour 21 theaters showing his movie.

What's Bob trying to prove? That there will always be a Bob Hope, what else? He was quite upset that his special TV shows this season wound up slotted against the No. 1 rated "Beverly Hillbillies." He rarely managed to outpoint and outcorn them, so he made sure NBC isn't making the same mistake next season.

Beginning in October, Bob will be on every week as host of a drama series, besides six variety shows and two dramas in which he also will star. He no doubt will find time for another movie or two in there somewhere.

WHILE THE HOPES, Bennys and Skeltons are guarding the comedy bastions on TV, standing in the wings will be Milton Berle, George Burns, Georgie Jessel, Groucho Marx, Ed Wynn, Jimmy Durante—all ready at the drop of an ad lib to enter from stage right to prove that old comics never fade away.

While they wait, this latter group spends a few weeks in Las Vegas at one of the hotels there, pulling down more money in a month than a new comic coming up now can hope to make in a life time.

Some junior-grade veterans like Sid Caesar, Jerry Lewis, Danny Kaye and Jackie Gleason will be hanging in there on TV with regular shows next fall, but they still have to prove themselves.

WE WON'T KNOW for another 20 years yet whether or not they have the stamina to tape a TV show, do the commercials, write a book and entertain the troops in South Korea all in the same day.

Look at Mort Sahl, Bob Newhart, Shelley Berman, George Gobel, who were hailed a few years ago as the "new comedians." They can't get regular work on TV and have to content themselves with touring the night-club circuit for a paltry ~~$150,000~~ a year.

Yes, I said paltry. Hope never goes out of the house without that much in loose change in his pocket.

So, if you're raising your kid to be a comic, forget it. There's no room at the top.

Farm Chief's Future Linked To Wheat Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Ohio congressman predicts that Orville Freeman's future as secretary of agriculture is riding on the result of the May 21 wheat referendum.

Rep. Delbert Latta, R-Ohio, said Thursday that Freeman has been "the administration's chief advocate of mandatory controls for all of agriculture," and "if wheat farmers reject this last remnant of his mandatory proposals, his future usefulness to the administration will be less than negligible."

German Ambassador Gets Honorary Degree

CINCINNATI (AP) — K. Heinrich Knappstein, West German ambassador to the United States, has received an honorary doctorate of laws from his old alma mater, the University of Cincinnati.

Knappstein, an exchange student at Cincinnati in 1930-1931, was given the honorary doctorate Thursday night during the school's annual military review.

NOTICE

THE STATE OF OHIO, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, SS: ROBERT R. BYCROFT, Administrator of the Estate of LAWRENCE EDWARD JONES, Deceased, Plaintiff, vs. ROBERT R. BYCROFT, Administrator of the Estate of ROSA JONES, also known as "Lena Jones", Deceased; the Unknown Heirs of ROSA JONES, also known as "Lena Jones", Deceased, and the Unknown Heirs of LAWRENCE EDWARD JONES, Deceased, Defendants.

IN THE PROBATE COURT
Case No. 58924-A

The unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, administrators, executors and assigns of Lawrence Edward Jones, Deceased, and Rosa Jones, also known as "Lena Jones", Deceased, will take notice that Robert R. Bycroft, Administrator of the Estate of Lawrence Edward Jones, Deceased, on the 6 day of May, 1963, filed his Petition in the Probate Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, the same being designated as Case No. 58924-A, Docket 68 Page 256, for consent to sell the following described real estate to pay debts:

Situated in the Township of Washington, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, and bounded and described as follows:

Situated in the Township of Washington, Columbiana County, Ohio, and being a part of the northwest quarter of section No. 6, Range No. 3, in Washington Township, as recorded in Deed Book 79, Pages 420 and 421 of the Deed Records of said County, and known as "THE MALCOLM CAMERON FARM", and bounded as follows:—On the East by lands of the Grange Hall, J. E. Brittain and John Duncan, on the South by lands of Lewis Metz, a 60 foot street abutment, and a part of lot No. 19 of the Village of Highlandtown, on the West by the B. H. Curry and Goldie R. Curry tract, on the North by a 20 foot lane and containing 7-8 (seven-eighths) of an acre of land, more or less, but subject to all legal highways, together with a perpetual right of way over a 20 foot lane, thence North along the north line of the B. H. Curry and Goldie R. Curry tract, the John E. Brittain tract and the Grange tract to the Lisbon Road for ingress and egress to said above described tract of land and being the same premises and right of way conveyed to John E. Brittain by Blanche Hinze by Warranty Deed, dated April 25, 1925, and recorded in Vol. 490 Page 295 reference to which deed and record is here made.

All the road rights now enjoyed by and owned by Grantee is hereby conveyed to Grantors to be used together with Grantee, as now enjoyed by her.

DEED REFERENCE: Vol. 584 Page 583.

The prayer in said Petition is that he may be authorized and ordered to sell the entire interest in said described real estate, according to the statute in such cases made and provided, and for such other and further relief to which he may be entitled.

The persons above named will further take notice that they have been made parties defendant to said Petition and that they are required to answer the same on or before the 8th day of June, 1963, at 9:30 o'clock, A.M., DST.

ROBERT R. BYCROFT,
Administrator of the Estate of Lawrence Edward Jones, Deceased.

STATE OF OHIO, COUNTY OF COLUMBIANA, SS:

SUMNER G. WHITTIER, ADMINISTRATOR OF VETERANS AFFAIRS, VETERANS ADMINISTRATION, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, vs. RALPH V. McCLAIN, GLADYS M. McCLAIN, VINCENT C. JUDGE, COLUMBIANA COUNTY TREASURER, Defendants.

RALPH V. McCLAIN and GLADYS M. McCLAIN, whose last known place of residence was Midland Heights, Midland, Pennsylvania, will take notice that on the 16th day of April, 1963, the Plaintiff, Sumner G. Whittier, Administrator of Veterans Affairs, Veterans Administration, United States of America, filed his petition against them in the Court of Common Pleas of Columbiana County, Ohio, the same being Case Number 48554 in said Court for the purpose of obtaining judgment in the amount of Thirteen Thousand Three Hundred Forty-seven and 38/000 Dollars ($13,347.38) and foreclosing of the mortgage on certain real estate and described in said petition, to-wit:

Situated in the City of Wellsville, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, and described as follows:

Being a part of Lot 23 of Henry Aten's Addition to said City, recorded in Plat Book 2, Page 31, of Records of Plats of said County, and being more fully described by beginning at intersection of easterly line of 15th Street and northerly line of Center Street at southwest corner of Lot 23 and running thence with northerly line of Center Street N. 49° 30' East a distance of 69.26 feet but to easterly line of Lot 23; thence with said Line N. 40° 30' West a distance of 55.0 feet to a point; thence S. 49° 30' West a distance of 80.12 feet to easterly line of 15th Street; thence with said line S. 51° 40' East a distance of 56.06 feet to place of beginning, containing in area 0.094 acres, more or less, but subject to all legal highways.

The prayer of said petition is for judgment to be rendered in favor of the Plaintiff against the Defendants, Ralph V. McClain and Gladys M. McClain, in the sum of Thirteen Thousand Three Hundred Forty-seven and 38/100 Dollars ($13,347.38), together with interest at the rate of 5¼%; that the mortgage herein described be foreclosed upon the equities of redemption and that the premises heretofore described be sold and the proceeds therefrom applied upon money judgment of the Plaintiff and for any other equitable relief.

Said Defendants, Ralph V. McClain and Gladys M. McClain, are required to answer said petition on the 31st day of May, 1963, or judgment will be taken against them.

ELKTON AUCTION, ELKTON, OHIO
ELKTON AUCTION MARKET REPORT
MAY 5

We received a nice run of stock, the prices were steady to strong. There are plenty of buyers looking for stock. Feeder cattle were very much in demand. Good dairy cows are in good demand. Hogs were strong with a top of $15.40.

Heavy butcher bulls were stronger, top $19.00 to $21.50. Good lambs hit the ceiling at 31c.

The demand was strong on beef cows, $15 to $16.80.

Everything was strong. With plenty of buyers for our next Saturday sale. We would like to handle some of your stock. Your business will be highly appreciated.

Junior Editors Quiz on TEETH

QUESTION: Does brushing your teeth keep them from turning yellow?

ANSWER: In his imaginative upper picture, our artist has suggested that if an elephant was human, he might try to keep his beautiful tusks clean and shining by working over them with a tooth brush. Of course the real elephant doesn't need a tooth brush, because he uses his tusks for grubbing down under the soil to uncover certain roots he is fond of eating, and this keeps his tusks clean. Many animals keep their teeth clean the same way — by chewing hard materials which polish them. No doubt early man's teeth kept clean as they ate hard roots and gnawed on bones. But we civilized people live on cooked foods which are softer and don't polish our teeth as we eat. That is why we need to use toothbrushes.

Dentists say that brushing teeth will definitely keep them from getting dirty looking in color. They say, however, that teeth have different colors, and some sets of teeth may be naturally more inclined to be yellow than others. Here's how the American Dental Association advises you to brush your teeth: 1. Place bristles of brush toward roots of teeth, use rotating motion so bristles sweep down over both gums and teeth toward biting surface. 2. Brush 10 strokes in each place. 3. Brush upper teeth down.

FOR YOU TO DO: Memorize rules above and these extra ones: 4. Brush lower teeth up. 5. Brush gum surfaces next to cheeks and next to the tongue. Happy biting!

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make an easier job of painting a wire fence?

A. Try using a piece of ¼-inch hardboard on one side as a backstop and brush on your paint from the other side. The hardboard is fastened in place with wires. Use a wide brush as when painting a board fence. This method saves the surrounding landscape from an unwelcome and unsightly spattering of paint.

Q. What is a good formula for furniture polish?

A. A recommended formula is: Two parts of vinegar to one part of olive oil. Put a small amount of this mixture on a soft cloth and rub it into the wood. The effect is a fresh, bright polish.

Q. How can I make a substitute solder to mend a leak in a sprinkling can or other such article?

A. Yellow soap pressed securely into the leak will prove a good temporary substitute for solder.

Q. How can I remedy a rug that has lost its stiffness?

A. Get sizing from a rug-supply dealer. It comes in powder or grain form, some kinds to be mixed with hot water, others with cold. To apply, turn the rug upside down on the floor, pour the sizing liberally out of a pot or saucepan, then spread around evenly with a broom. It'll take about two days or so before the rug is dry enough to turn over.

Q. How can I remedy "sweating" water pipes in my basement?

A. Procure special insulating strips, sold in all plumbing establishments. Wipe the pipes dry, cut the strips to cover four or five feet at a time. Use cord to hold the wrappings on the pipe while winding it.
